The September number of the Denominator is called the early autumn number, and combines an essentially authoritative synopsis of fashion's latest and most artistic creations, a number of literary features of singular strength and beauty and a variety of original discussions on pertinent social and household themes. In this number appears a delightful story, A Woman's Reason, by Ellen Olney Kirk, a sparkling romance, demonstrating, incidentally, how satisfactorily affinities may be readjusted. The New Kindergarten Papers, by Sara Miller Rich, were laid up again in this issue—the topic for the month being Home Work and Play for September. The article Floral Pillows, by Katherine E. Maxwell, suggests many pleasing possibilities in the construction of serviceable souvenirs. Local and educational features of the various institutions for women are discussed in College News by Carolyn Haishead.
