

ST. JAMES' PARK AND ORNAMENTAL WATER—Shewing the Horse Guards and Parade, the Scottish Office and Whitehall Court, a handsome residential building, in the background. The scene in summer from bridge over this water is one of the prettiest in the metropolis. Over 1,500 various water fowl are kept by the Government in this Park, and some excellent Canadian specimens of ducks and geese.

J. M. BARRIE

In "My Lady Nicotine," page
17, says:—

If there is one man in London who knows tobaccos, it is myself. There is only one mixture in London deserving the adjective superb. I will not say where it is to be got, for the result would certainly be that many foolish men would smoke more than ever; but I never knew anything to compare to it. It is deliciously mild yet full of fragrance, and it never burns the tongue. If you try it once you smoke it ever afterwards. It clears the brain and soothes the temper. When I went away for a holiday anywhere I took as much of that exquisite healthgiving mixture as I thought would last me the whole time, but I always ran out of it. Then I telegraphed to London for more, and was miserable until it arrived. How I tore the lid off the canister! That is a tobacco to live for.
