

POSTSCRIPT.

(From the British Colonist of this morning)

MONTREAL, Thursday Evening,

23d March, 1848.

Prorogation of Parliament.

This day, at half-past 3 o'clock, p.m., his Excellency the Governor General proceeded in State to the Chamber of the Legislative Council, in the Parliament Building. The members of the Legislative Council having assembled, his Excellency was pleased to command the attendance of the Legislative Assembly, and that House being present, the following Bills were presented to, by his Excellency the Governor General, in her Majesty's name:

1. An Act to make better provision with respect to the Emigrants, and for defining and amending the laws of supporting indigent Emigrants, and of forwarding them to their place of destination, and to amend the Act thereto-mentioned.

2. An Act to remove doubts as to the time from which the provisions of the Act regulating the summoning of Juries in Lower Canada were intended to have force and effect.

3. An Act to Incorporate "the City of Kingston Gas Light Company."

4. An Act to Incorporate "the Toronto Atheneum."

5. An Act to authorise the Rector and Churchwardens of St. Paul's Church, London, to sell a part of the Glebe, on certain conditions.

6. An Act to extend Exequory certain Judgments, rendered by the Vice-Courts of King's Bench for Lower Canada.

7. An Act to Incorporate the Institut Canadien de Quebec.

8. An Act to amend the Act for regulating the Shipping of Seamen, and to fund the fees payable under said Act.

9. An Act to continue and amend the Act for the Inspection of Flour and Meal, and to provide for the inspection of Oatsmeal.

10. An Act to amend the Act to incorporate the Town of Dundas.

11. An Act to incorporate the Western Telegraph Company.

12. An Act to provide for the Inspection of Butter, in Quebec.

13. An Act to repeal the Act thereto mentioned, and to make better provision for the construction of Apons of Dams upon the River Morris.

14. An Act to incorporate the Consumers' Gas Company of Toronto.

15. An Act to amend the Laws relating to the incorporation of the City of Montreal.

16. An Act to continue for a limited time, the several Acts and Ordinances therein mentioned, and to other Provisions.

17. An Act to grant a certain sum to her Majesty, for defraying certain expenses of the civil Government, for the year 1848.

18. An Act for raising on the Credit of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, a sum of money required for the public service.

After which his Excellency the Governor General was pleased to close the first session of the third Provincial Parliament, with the following

S P E E C H :

Honourable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council; and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly;

I have reason to believe that I shall better consult the public interest, and your convenience, by bringing the present session to a close, with a view to the resumption of our joint labours, at an early period.

In pursuance to my declared intentions, I have taken measures for the formation of a new administration, and I am enabled to assure you that the arrangements necessary for that purpose are completed.

I trust that the measures which have been adopted by the Provincial and Imperial Parliaments, for preventing the recurrence of the calamities by which last year's emigration to the country, took place, will be found effective.

It is to be hoped, however, that the measures which have been adopted will be found effective.

The Hon. Speaker of the Legislative Council, then declared, that it was the pleasure of His Excellency the Governor General that the Parliament stand prorogued to the second day of May next.

Hamilton, 16th March, 1848.

A CANADIAN.

An eye-witness of the transit extraordinary referred to in the preceding communication, informs us that Mr. Ellett was five minutes in crossing from the American to the British side, and four minutes in returning. The power employed was a windlass on each side, working a rope attached to the carriage.

The wire cable was only one inch in diameter, so that it appeared a thread in our eyes. A little after eleven o'clock, Mr. Ellett took his seat in it alone. Being among the spectators on the pier, I may, in justice to the feelings of all present, a breathless anxiety filled every heart, and when he reached about half way up for his safety were dissipated, and a shout of joy from all broke forth, which overpowered (in our ears) the thunder of the great falls, and was repeated from the opposite side. Mr. Ellett's arrival at the stand, three warm-hearted cheers saluted the intrepid enterprising gentleman, which were repeated on his return, with more for his lady, whose intention to accompany her husband was known.

The cool determined aspect of Mr. Ellett was observed by all.

A voice from the public gallery said—"It is too late." An indescribable scene of tumult ensued. A number of Deputies collected round the Duchess and her children, and the Duke de Nemours and Montpensier. The National Guard also rallied round the Royal Family.

After a few remarks by different members on the propriety of pronouncing the Comte de Paris King, and his mother Regent, the prince was followed by all the members of the centre, those of the left, and those of the right.

The insurgents then called for rather, carried M. Dupont d'Eure to the Presidential chair. The tribune and all the seats were occupied by the people and National Guards, and the mass of the members of the Provisional Government were proclaimed amidst a scene which has never been witnessed since the coronation. The Assembly then adjourned to the Hotel de Ville, to instate the Provisional Government.

New York, March 18th, 7, P.M.

The markets have been very quiet to-day, parties on change being occupied in discussing the French Revolution and its consequences taken with trade.

The market for Flour continues very firm, but demand moderate.

Further Items from United States Papers.

IMPEACHMENT OF THE MINISTRY.

At the meeting of the Chamber of Deputies on the 22d, the deputies of the opposition, to the number of 53, submitted the following proposition:-

"We propose to place the Minister in accusation as Guilty, of having betrayed abroad the honour and the interests of France."

"2. Of having falsified the principles of the constitution, violated the guarantees of liberty, and attacked the rights of the people."

"3. Of having, by a systematic corruption, attempted to subvert the free expression of public opinion, the calculations of private interest, and thus perverted the representative government."

"4. Of having trafficked, for ministerial purposes, in public offices, as well as in the prerogatives and privileges of power."

"5. For having, in the same interest, wasted the finances of the state, and thus compromised the forces and the grandeur of the kingdom."

"6. Of having violently despoiled the citizens of a right inherent to every free constitution, and the exercise of which had been guaranteed to them by the charter, by the laws, and by former precedents."

"7. Of having, in fact, by a policy overtly counter-revolutionary, placed in question all the conquests of our two revolutions, and thrown the country into a profound agitation."

I Here follow the signatures, M. Ollilien Barrot at the head:-

M. Grimoire submitted in his name a proposition of accusation against the Ministry, conceived in these terms:

"Whereas the Minister, by his refusal to present a project of law for electoral reform, has occasioned trouble, I propose to put in accusation the President of the Council and his colleague."

Hamilton Gazette.

A remarkable instance of female heroism occurred lately in this vicinity, which is worthy of notice. A daughter of Mr. Carmichael, farmer, was driving a sleigh with two horses much younger than herself to the Sabbath School in the village of Tanneries, where the horse became restless near one of the locks of the Lehigh Canal, which is very deep, and began to kick rapidly towards it. She stopped, and seized the horse's head, and, resolute as she was to save herself, the horse suddenly precipitated into the lock, and of course destroyed.

It is rumoured that the relief of the late Chief Justice Reid proposes to add, at her own expense, a wing to the Montreal General Infirmary, to match the Richardson wing—a most judicious, as well as liberal act of charity.—Montreal Gazette.

"I. Loud cries of "bravo" and cheers followed this announcement, which appealed to many. M. Grimoire. He then continued—We are bound to accuse the Minister, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of himself and the other deputies for Paris addressed some questions to the Minister of the Interior, and to report to the recent events in Paris.

M. Grimoire, who had shortly before entered the Chamber, immediately rose and said—"I have nothing to say at the present moment to the questions of the honourable member. The King has sent for Count Mole, who is empowered to form a Government, to the 11th arrondissement of Paris, rose, and in the name of