The West Toronto Stakes.

It so happens that this number of Green comes out just when the great West Torontorace is at its hottest. The excited crowd run hither and thither, and those sportingly inclined are offering to back their favorites at any odds. We cannot tell at this moment which horse is leading, though the BEATY men are confident it is not RYAN or WRIGHT. Next week we will depict the finish, and it is safe to promise that it will be a spirited production. Speaking of next week reminds us to notify the reader that, to signalize the opening of the Great Exhibition, GER will appear in an enlarged form for the next two issues, profusely illustrated and brim-ming over with love and human nature as usual.

AUGUST NUMBER NOW READY.

THE CANADIAN

Illustrated Shorthand Writer.

A MONTHLY MAGAZINE FOR PHONOGRAPHERS.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

CANADIAN SHORTHAND WRITER .- The second number CANDIAN SHORFHAND WRITER.—The second number of this journal, under the editoral management of the Bengough Bros, has many valuable leatures to commend it, especially to the profession and students in Canada. It gives about all that is interesting in 'the way of news in shorthand circles, well written articles, with elever illustrations from the pencel of $Gri\rhos$ cartoonist, upon timely topics, and numerous speciments of shorthand written in the different standard systems, which makes the magazine more than usually interesting to those who like to know what can be done in systems with which they are not acquainted. The Shorthand Writer is a first-class phonographic magazine in every respect.—London Advertiser.

We are in receipt of a monthly magazine entitled "The Canadian Illustrated Shorthand Writer," which is, as its name implies, a paper devoted to the advancement of the art of phonography, which has now become almost an essential feature in a common English education, and without which the newspaper fraternity, the railroad companies and our courts, as well as other businesses and organizations, would proceed and move forward slowly. The "Canadian Writer" is illustrated each month with well engraved fac similes of the leading systems of the day, including those of Pitman, Graham, Munson, Cross and others, and the publishers, Messrs. Bengough Brothers of Toronto, Canada, certainly have filled a long-felt want among the "swift writing fraternity.—Daily Nonpartel, Council Blufts, Inva."

"I have returned to St. John this A. M. [July 14] after an absence of ten days. On my arrival I found your gem of a monthly awaiting my return. Had I known it was here I should have made a short cut through the fields and would have had the pleasure of feasting on the Witter several days earlier. Perhaps you will receive the statement with a smile, but I am guilty of offering you nothing in the form of an exaggeration when I say that since the last No. of the Writter with its funny pictures came to hand, I have gained 22 lbs avoirdupois, so heartily have I laughed over the cartoons. Tell Bengough I am indelited to him for being instrumental in securing for me a new lease of life, for I was one of the most consumptive looking bipeds that ever existed on the crust of this terrestrial sphere. The Miscellany will always be on hand to assist in extending the circulation of its Ontario chum." – T. IV. Bell, Editor Printers Miscellany St. John N. B.

Betth Editor Printers Missellary St. Tohn N. B.
SHORTHAND LITERATURE.—The second number of the "Canadian Shorthand Writer," illustrated in the most humorous manner, has just reached this country from Messrs. Bengough Brothers, of Toronto. It is quite a remarkable production, combining both common print, cartoon portrait of James Crankshaw, formerly of Manchester, who has established a branch of the English Phonetic Society in Canada; pages lithographed in different systems of stenography and phonographic numerals, &c.
An Irishwoman is picturesquely represented in a scolding mood, speaking to her husband at the extraordinary rate of "three hundred words a minute!" The great Napoleon is represented as sitting contemplatively on the rock of St.
Helena and saying. "I wish I had somebody to take me down now!" The get-up of the number is good, "Newcastle, Eng. Courant, July 0th.
