

THE QUEBEC EXHIBITION

At the opening of the Quebec Exhibition yesterday, the Hon. Premier was received with great cheering.

His Eminence Cardinal Taschereau then briefly addressed the large gathering. After complimenting the Government and the people of Quebec on the success of the first exhibition held here in fifteen years, he, too, referred to the arrival of the first train from St. John, and said that when he visited that district forty-two years ago it was only an unsifted wilderness.

Here and there might be seen the lonely log cabin of the pioneer, and there was only one priest in the entire district. The present, however, had been made since that time, and the Hon. Premier declared the exhibition open.

The exhibition entries are far more numerous than on any previous occasion of a similar kind. There are no fewer than 100,000 articles, and no former occasion had Quebec such an elegant building for exhibition purposes and never before so many outside attractions provided.

Many exhibits only arrived to-day and entries are still crowding in upon the secretary. The entries so far in the stock and agricultural departments comprise 100,000 head of sheep, 98 dairy products, and 376 agricultural products. The two silos constructed on the grounds were opened in the presence of the Mayor, members of the local department in town and others, and the ensilage stored therein is now being fed to the animals, which eat it with avidity.

At the exhibition, the Hon. Premier was met by a large number of people, and he was seen in the most favorable manner. He was seen in the most favorable manner. He was seen in the most favorable manner.

Wilson Montrose, of Vienna, Ont., having used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in his family for summer complaints, says, "I cannot speak too highly of it for children as well as aged people troubled with diarrhoea it has no equal."

Belva Lockwood has withdrawn her claim to be a candidate for the Presidency, in 1893, in favor of Mrs. Cleveland.

When all so-called remedies fail, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures.

Heels on the shoes first originated with the Persians. A person of low stature was regarded as an object of contempt, and, therefore, the heel was the happy thought of some one of the unfortunates, thus providing by art that which nature denied.
