task, demand, where necessary, from the High Commands of the parties to the Agreement, action under Article 22 to Nove Dunish persons under their respective commands who te Violate any of the provisions of the Agreement and insist that the High Commands of the parties afford us all assistance and co-operation in the performance of the Tunctions and tasks assigned to us under the Agreement (Article 25).

In the ultimate analysis, the successful implementation of the Agreement depends on the co-Operation and assistance of the two High Commands and everything that maintains and promotes this co-operation and assistance makes for more effective implementation of the Agreement on the Cessation of Hostilities in Vietnam.

I take this opportunity, on behalf of myself and my colleagues, to renew to your Excellency the assurances of our highest consideration.

Yours faithfully,

(Sgd) M.J. DESAI, Chairman.
