

9. The Director and staff are neither employees nor officials of the United Nations. The terms and conditions of their employment with the Institute will solely be determined by agreements entered into with the Institute.

Working languages

10. The working languages of the Institute shall be English and French. The Institute may offer services or public documents in any other official language of the United Nations.

ARTICLE 4

OBLIGATIONS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA

The Government of Canada agrees

- a) to provide the Institute with such financial and other resources which may be independently agreed to by any department, agency, or body of the Government of Canada in furtherance and in the context of its mandate or programs; and
- b) to provide for designation of the Institute as a client of the Department of Government Services of Canada.

ARTICLE 5

OBLIGATIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS

The United Nations agrees:

- a) to recognize the Institute as an institute affiliated with the United Nations in accordance with the Economic and Social Council resolution 1994/23.
- b) to integrate the activities of the Institute into the overall United Nations crime prevention and criminal justice programme network.

ARTICLE 6

SUPPORT FOR THE INSTITUTE BY OTHER ENTITIES

Support for the Institute by other entities can be provided directly or through ear-marked contributions to the United Nations Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Fund.