

- We must be more open to collaboration with business, think tanks, NGOs and the media.
- We must reach out to the wider public across the country through a proactive communications strategy, the full use of e-government and speaking tours of our Heads of Mission.