

Great Powers, which must bear the main responsibilities, for at least a beginning in actual measures of disarmament. Canada has co-sponsored plans for partial disarmament but, I repeat, we do not regard them as necessarily the last word. Further negotiation in the interests of world peace is the bounden duty of all of us. At the beginning the experience gained and the confidence created by our first steps in disarmament -- however limited -- could lead us on towards our goal, which is the elimination of nuclear weapons. The stake is the very survival of the human race.
