

4. Section nine of the said Act and section ten as enacted by section six of chapter thirty-eight of the Statutes of 1928 are repealed and the following sections are substituted therefor:—

“9. (1) The Governor in Council may appoint nine persons to be members of a Pension Tribunal; one of such persons shall be appointed chairman of the tribunal and he and each of the other members thereof shall hold office for ten years, subject only to earlier removal for cause.

(2) The salary of the chairman of the Pension Tribunal shall be seven thousand dollars a year and the salary of each of the other members thereof shall be six thousand dollars a year.

“10. (1) The Governor in Council may appoint three persons to be members of a Pension Appeal Court; one of such persons shall be appointed president thereof and he and each of the other members thereof shall hold office for ten years, subject only to earlier removal for cause.

(2) The salary of the president of the Pension Appeal Court shall be eight thousand dollars a year and the salary of each of the other members thereof shall be seven thousand dollars a year.

“10b. All the members of the Pension Appeal Court and the chairman of the Pension Tribunal shall reside at Ottawa or within ten miles thereof and each of the other members of the Pension Tribunal shall reside at such place as may be directed by the chairman.

“10c. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, no member of the Pension Tribunal or of the Pension Appeal Court shall continue in office after he has attained the age of seventy years, unless it is declared by the Governor in Council, either before or within one month after the termination of such member's tenure of office, that it is in the public interest that he should remain in office for an additional period of twelve months, but no such declaration shall authorize the continuance in office of any such member after he has attained the age of seventy-five years.

“10d. (1) The Governor in Council, upon the retirement of any member of the Commission, the Pension Tribunal or the Pension Appeal Court who has served upon one or other of such bodies, during at least twenty years or who has so served during at least ten years and has reached the age of seventy years, or is physically or mentally incapacitated, may grant to him a pension for his life not exceeding one-third of the salary to which he was entitled as such member.

(2) For the purpose of this section, service as a judge appointed by the Governor in Council prior to appointment as a member of the Pension Tribunal or of the Pension Appeal Court shall count as service as a member of such tribunal or court as the case may be, provided that if any such member would have become entitled to a greater pension or retiring allowance under any other statute if he had continued as such judge during his service on the tribunal or court, he may be granted such greater pension or retiring allowance in lieu of the pension by this section provided.

“10e. (1) Notwithstanding anything in the Civil Service Act or any other statute, the Governor in Council may appoint a registrar of the Pension Appeal Court and a registrar of the Pension Tribunal who shall have their offices at Ottawa.

(2) Such registrars shall be entitled to receive such salaries as may be fixed by the Governor in Council.
