

As honourable Members may know, there are meetings of House Leaders in the Speaker's Chambers during which procedural matters are discussed informally from time to time and at which the Speaker takes the initiative on occasion to suggest that the committee might consider special problems.

I propose to take the initiative to recommend to the committee that it take up at the first opportunity, at its very first meeting, the point raised today by the honourable Member for Peace River. However, for the moment, and for the reasons stated, I must rule that the honourable Member's motion now being discussed will have to be removed from the Order Paper.
