

3. Particular objection is taken to the Commission proposals to have no fully urban seats in Saskatchewan. The Capital city of Regina, and the city of Saskatoon should be city Ridings. This can be accomplished by allowing the full quotient of 88,960 population, placing the remainder of these cities in the surrounding rural constituencies.

AND other objections that the undersigned Members may deem necessary to carry out the spirit of fair Redistribution will be presented verbally. A map will be submitted to the Electoral Boundaries Commission with constituency boundaries drawn to meet the objections noted above.

Dated this 15th day of February A.D. 1966.
