

(1) In addition to the payments under sub-section (1), each member of the Council, whether elected or appointed, may be paid

(a) the actual travelling expenses incurred by him in travelling from his place of residence to the place where the Council holds its session and return, but no payment shall be made to a member in respect of more than one return trip for each session of the Council; and

(b) an allowance for living expenses not exceeding ten paise per day for each day he is in attendance at a session of the Council.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (1), each day on which an elected member is in the place where a session of the Council is held but he is absent in respect of a day shall be in attendance at the session as if he were in attendance at the session at which he is in attendance at the session.

(4) For the purpose of subsection (1), each day's allowance for living expenses

(a) each day during a session on which there has been no sitting of the Council in accordance with the bye-laws of the Council; and

(b) each day on which a member is in the place where the session is held but he is absent in respect of a day shall be in attendance at the session.

(5) No member shall be deemed to be in attendance at a session of the Council on any day on which he is in attendance at the session.
