

CHAPTER V.

Quebec—Its former greatness—British forces—Irrepressible citizens— Their ingratitude—Pretended "rights"—Savages and wild beasts— The "Snawshus"—Addresses—Winter sports—The cone—Why built —Heat and cold remarkable—Plains of Abraham—Why so called— Prize fight between Wolf and Montcalm—Attempted capture of Lord Dufferin—Fortifying the city—Isle of Orleans—Beauport Asylum— By whom built—Why	27
---	----

CHAPTER VI.

Montreal—Impressions—Victoria Bridge—Toboggans governing society— Wild beasts and savages—Seat of government—Address and presenta- tion to Lord Elgin by the citizens—Parliament house destroyed—Seat of Government removed—Head of navigation—Whales—Lachine— Why so called—Glengarry—Nemrod and the Gaelic—Etymology of Nemrod—Stormont and Dundas—Early settlers—Prescott junction— Want of accommodation for distinguished travellers—Ottawa—Expa- riation of the Marquis and Princess—Government buildings—Bridges Canal—Bytown—Why so called	32
--	----

CHAPTER VII.

Visit to the Marquis and Princess—Amusements—Ladies' pugnacity— Disregard of the fashions—Breach of etiquette—Society at Ottawa— Vanity Fair —Awkwardness of the M.P.'s accounted for—Interview on the subject—Damaging effects of the Colonies on lives of Gover- nor's—Victims—Paltry remuneration—Windmill at Prescott—The target of a knight-errant—Doubts—Kingston—Its original name— Places of interest—Why Parliament has removed—Its big Gur- Rideau Canal—Its present use—Derivation of its name—Reasons for prosecuting the research	38
--	----

CHAPTER VIII.

Toronto—Impressions—Mud—Harbour—Etymology of the name—Wm. Lyon Mackenzie—His fight with the tiger—Flight—Lions killed— Queen's Park—Its character on Sundays—Courts—Judges and the knowledge of law—The Court House—Its antiquity—Parliament buildings—By whom built—Conjectures of travellers about them— Medical Board of Examiners—A theory applied to it—Plucked students passing in England—Degrees—Wisdom of English people excluding Colonial Physicians—Railway cars—Evils—Want of ambi- tion— Quid pro quo —Physical objects—Difference—Phenomena— How positions are obtained—Infusing superior blood into Canada— Results	42
--	----

CHAPTER IX.

Lake Ontario—Other Lakes—Their formation accounted for—Niagara Falls—How formed and the cause—European waterfalls compared— By whom named—Meaning of the name—Persecution and back.heek —Victims—Companions—Places to be visited—Savages and wild beasts—Miss Ko Ka—Yankees—Who they are—An appointment— Conclusion	49
---	----