Transportation Building, Corner Notre air brakes for the cars on the London Street Railway system was briefly considered at the annual meeting of the company directors yesterday afternoon, but no action was taken, the feeling being that it was not necessary for the company to take such an expensive step without any order from the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board. Manager C. B. King said last night that the improvement would be a very expensive one and that he did not consider that air brakes were necessary to safety on such sized cars as are LONDON, Feb. 6.—The providing of used on the London system.
