

THE REVISED STATUTES OF CANADA.

Province. The articles of the code relating to shipping have been largely amended by the Dominion Acts, 36 Vict. chaps. 128, 129. The articles respecting bills and notes are referred to in chap. 123, but none of the articles of the code or of the Acts and parts of Acts in Schedule B have been printed in Volumes I. and II., the insertion of Provincial enactments being confined to such as it was thought right to incorporate in the Revised Acts (and so extend to the whole Dominion) or such as related directly to the subject of any chapter, and could therefore be conveniently printed with it, though distinguished as applying only to one or more named Provinces. But Schedule B is a most important portion of the revision as indicating the Provincial enactments, including those of the Code, on subjects under the exclusive legislative authority of the Dominion Parliament, and therefore demanding the most attentive consideration in any attempt to make the law of Canada uniform on any such subject. The Civil Code, more especially, is deserving of attention as having been framed by a Commission composed of a Chief Justice and Judges, who gave their whole time to the work for several years, with most able secretaries and assistants, and the authorities relied on are stated at the end of each article. The fourth book relates entirely to commercial law, and the authorities cited are from the best English as well as French authors. This book, and indeed the whole Code, is well worth the attention and study of lawyers of the other Provinces of the Dominion, and yet more especially of legislators who wish to make the law uniform throughout Canada, as in commercial cases, at any rate, it ought certainly to be.

Schedule C, appended to Vol. II., contains a list of "Acts and parts of Acts repealed, so far as they constitute indictable offences, from and after a day when the proper Legislature makes provision for the punishment of the offence by fine or imprisonment or by both, under the British North America Act, 1867." This Schedule is founded on sub-section 15 of the 2nd section of the B. N. A. Act.

There are also appended to Vol. II.: "A Table of Acts passed prior to Confederation by the different Provinces now comprised in the Dominion of Canada, and of Acts of the Dominion of Canada, showing how much of each is in force, and how each has been dealt with;" and "A Table of Acts and parts of Acts consolidated, showing whence each section, or part of a section, is consolidated." These two schedules embody a full and detailed account of the work done by the Commissioners, and enable the reader to judge of the care and labour bestowed upon it; and with the tables we have mentioned, and the full and detailed index repeated in each volume, afford every facility for using the work and testing its correctness; and though we have not been able to give to the examination of their work the time which the Joint Committees of the Senate and House of Commons were able to bestow upon it, yet we have given it no slight attention and consideration, and feel safe in saying with that Committee that "it has been well and carefully done."
