

COMPARATIVE STATE
OF THE
PUBLIC REVENUES, &c.

THE Year ended 10th of October 1783, was a Year of Famine: It cannot be drawn and considered as a fair, equal Year and Precedent. In that Year, the old Taxes established before the War fell short of the Average Produce of the Nine preceding Years, One Million Five Hundred and Seventy-one Thousand One Hundred and Seven Pounds.