

foreign countries, and to write and publish pamphlets on the subject whenever circumstances require;

(7) To report to the forest administration partly such business which requires the decision of His Royal Majesty, and partly such steps in regard to an improved forest economy and management of the chase within the kingdom which may be found necessary;

(8) To make such reports or give such information concerning the forest economy and the management of the chase which the forest administration may demand, as well as to render to the same yearly accounts of the operations of the institute; and

(9) To give the porter instructions in regard to his attendance and other duties at the institute.

THE TEACHERS AT THE FOREST INSTITUTE.

11. The teacher of forest economy ought to have graduated at the institute with honours, and, thereafter, on his own responsibility, managed a forest district, and, as his services are constantly required, he ought to live within the institute. This teacher shall—

(1) Instruct and examine in all the branches of forest economy in which the director himself does not teach; and, besides, practically instruct the pupils in surveying and estimating of the area of forests, and the cubic contents of trees, construction of maps, valuation of soil, growing and felled timber, to collect and preserve seeds, the laying out and care of nurseries forest growing and planting, the position of seed-trees, clearing, to quench quicksand, felling of trees, assorting and marking of timber, as well as to conduct a party of the pupils in the forests for practical measuring, estimating, and dividing of forest land;

(2) To have under his care, and to account for, the archives, library, and movables of the institute, with the exception of those for which the teacher of the chase and regulations is responsible;

(3) To manage the economy of and account for the forests assigned to the care of the institute;

(4) To assist the director in watching over that given instructions are followed, and in maintaining industry and order among the pupils; and
