

- improvement in, 231—cultivation of the soil the only object to which industry can be applied in the central, 239—education in, 221, note—222—change of tenantry in, 151—emigration from, 193—cause of illicit distillation in, 199.
- Home's History of the Rebellion quoted and characterized, 75, note.
- Huntly, Marquis of, joins the 42d regiment, 415—succeeds Sir Hector Munro as Colonel, 518, note.
- Huntly, family of, their feud with the Argyle, 112.
- Howe, General Sir William, Commander-in-chief in America, 379.
- Lord, killed, 310—his character, ib.
- Jackson's Systematic View quoted, 247, 272.
- Jacobite songs, their merit and influence, 104.
- James, the abdicated King, his letter to Stewart of Ballechin, 69, note.
- Icolm-kill, college of, 17—furnishes England with bishops, 17, note.
- Inch Ewan, stream of, the boundary between the Celts and Saxons, 102.
- Indies, West, expeditions to, 324, 429.
- Ingoldsby, B. General, his vindication of himself when at Fontenoy, 286.
- Inverkeithing, battle of, 18.
- Inverlochry, castle of, 18.
- Invincibles, French, beaten in Egypt, 478—dispute about the captured colour of, 479, 505.
- Johnson, Dr Samuel, remarks by, 18, 50, note—his opinion of the disarming act, 120—his Journey quoted, 144, note—his sarcasm respecting the want of old trees likely to prove true, 152, note.
- Sir William, defeats a party of Indians, 334—takes the Fort of Niagara, ib.—his military genius, 335, note—his influence over the Indians, 348.
- Irishmen, by adopting Mac instead of the O, admitted into the 42d regiment, 318.
- Katrine, Loch, supposed origin of the name, 40.
- Kenmore, an affray at, 55.
- Killierankie, pass of, 5, 19—battle of, 67.
- Kingdom, Celtic, 15.
- Landlords, instances of the attachment of the Highlanders to, 128, note—129, note.
- Lamont, Captain, his death and character, 305.
- Language, Gaelic, 5—of Oriental origin, 10—when discontinued at Court, 16—adapted for social intercourse, 100—whisky-house a term unknown in, 204, note.
- Lafeldt, battle of, 297.
- Latham, Lieutenant, his fate a warning to young officers, 420, note.
- Leane, Donald Bane, freebooter, 45.
- Lee, General, his opinion of British grenadiers, 397.
- Leny, pass of, 5.