

THE TOYLAND SERIES OF JUVENILE GIFT BOOKS

BY

MARY HERRICK BIRD

THE three stories contained in this series, "The Snow-Man's Christmas," "How the Indian Suit Ran Away" and "The Wreck of the Nursery Flyer," are all tales about toys.

The child loves to personify everything that he sees, and here we have his dearest possessions, his toys, actually "doing things."

These books are intended for very young children, and there is a minimum of story and a maximum of illustration—the latter all in full color. Each book contains 24 color plates by Joseph C. Claghorn, and is printed on heavy enameled paper of the best quality, bound in cloth, with an inlay picture on the cover in full color. The whole series is sure to be treasured in the youthful library. Size of book is $4\frac{7}{8}$ x $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

LIST PRICE, 40c. EACH

or the three books in a decorated box, $1.25, list

EDWARD STERN & CO., Inc., Publishers, Philadelphia
WILLIAM BRIGGS, Publisher, Toronto, Canada