

- Maggiolo, Vesconte, map, 11.
- Maine, advance of settlement, 237.
See also Kennebec River.
- Malleus Maleficarum*, 142.
- Maria Theresa, queen of Hungary, and the Seven Years' War, 302.
- Marie de Medicis, widow of Henry IV., and the Jesuits, 74.
- Marin, French officer, expedition to the Ohio valley, 268.
- Marin, French partisan, attempt to relieve Fort Niagara, 346.
- Marquette, Jacques, Jesuit missionary, character, 117; on the Mississippi, 118-120; death, 120.
- Martin, Susannah, executed for witchcraft, 168.
- Mascoutins, Algonquin Indians on Lake Michigan, 99.
- Massachusetts, early witchcraft trials, 145-149; change in character of General Court under new charter, 185; opposition to the theocracy, 197, 201; Halfway Covenant, 200; Andros's rule, 202; new charter, 202; liberalism compared with Connecticut, 212-215, 220; conflicts between governor and Assembly, 242, 243; expedition against Kennebec Indians, 243; bounty for Indian scalps, 245; share in the Louisburg expedition, 251; monument to George, Viscount Howe, 321; troops for campaign of 1759, 343. See also Great Awakening, Salem Village.
- Massé, Enemond, Jesuit missionary, arrives in Canada, 89.
- Mather, Cotton, attainments, 149; character, 150; and the Salem witchcraft, 150-152, 155, 170-173, 186, 197; connection with the Goodwin witchcraft case, 152-155; religious conservatism, 197, 205, 206; and Harvard College, 209.
- Mather, Increase, Cases of Conscience, 186; religious conservatism, 197, 206; effort to obtain a charter for Massachusetts, 202; non-resident president of Harvard, 203, 208; displaced, 208.
- Ménard, René, Jesuit missionary, explores Lake Superior, 101.
- Mercœur, Duke de, and Roche, 35.
- Mexico, Champlain in, 40.
- Miamis, Algonquin Indians in Ohio valley, 263; Céloron among, 266; English influence, 267; French attack, 267.
- Mingos, Iroquois Indians in Ohio valley, 263; English allies, 341.
- Missions to the Indians, French, Recollets arrive, 86; Jesuits arrive, 89; paramount interest, 92; extent, 103.
- Mississippi River, Nicollet unwittingly hears of, 100; Allouez hears of, 106; question of its mouth, 106, 111, 119; La Salle's reputed trip, 115; Marquette and Joliet on, 118-120; La Salle descends, 130.
- Missouri River, Joliet and Marquette discover, 119.
- Mohawks, Iroquois Indians, meaning of name, 45; segregated from the Onondagas, 47. See also Iroquois.
- Monckton, Robert, English colonel, to attack the French from Acadia, 294.
- Monopoly in Canada, fur-trade, 36-38, 49, 57, 59, 90; general commercial, 90.
- Monro, English colonel, defends Fort William Henry, 312; surrenders, 313.
- Montagnais, name for the Adirondacks, 63.
- Montcalm, Louis Joseph, Marquis de, French commander-in-chief in America, 303; character,