Kelley Announces Revised List of Exhibition Games

Note and Comment

So Ottawa and Cornwall want to cut the teams down to ten men, and they give many arguments in support of the scheme, chief of which comes from the stockholders. With ten a side there would be more room for the field captain, and he may also return to life after a sleep of several years.

That was a brilliant bluff the Montreal paper pulled on the Nationals in case the lacrosse champions refused to obey the mandate of the head of the NLU. in reference to the proposed joy trip of New Westminster to these parts. Sure they would get fired, and the hated rivals, Les Canadiens, would jump at the vacancy. How those French clubs love each other:

It was generally considered that fighters, the same as any other species of winners, reached the top as much by judgment as skill until the ex-ray expert comes along and tells us that Jack Johnson is a genuine bonehead.

Talk about versatility in baseball presidents, but McCaffery is not in it with Lichtenheim of Montreal. Thirty newspaper writers, who are interested in baseball, were entertained at dinner by the Montreal Eastern League Club the other night. The function was presided over by President Lichtenheim, who was assisted by T. Hubert Cushing, the treasurer, and Eddie McCafferty, the manager. The guests included representatives from La Presse. La Patrie, Le Canada, Le Devoir, Le Nationaliste, Le Bulletin, Le Pays, Star, Gazette, Herald, Witness and Standard. President Lichtenheim made speeches in three languages, and that's where he has it on the Toronto caput, the there are other lines where the latter has it on the pea-soup president.

During the evening Mr. Lichtenheim read the following telegram from President Barrow of the Eastern League: "Regret I cannot attend your banquet to Montreal newspaper men, but am greatly pleased with your idea, and trust it will result in closer and more friendly relations between you in the future. As you well know, I am for the newspapers first, last and all the time, believing that baseball's great advance in popularity and standing during the last ten years is due greatly to the support and publicity given it by the newspapers. Modesty wou't permit me to say anything about its president, but I will say the prospects never were brighter for the Eastern League than they are now, and everything points to a successful season for the Montreal club, which will make it pleasant for the baseball writers, the management and all concerned. Buy a few quarts of grape at my expense, and drink the health of the Eastern League, President Lichtenheim, Manager McCafferty, the Montreal newspaper boys, and also my new secretary. He is a big league star, comes from Montreal. (Signed) Edward Barrow."

Donald will more than fikely be on Tommy Dowd's New Bedford team.

The young players are doing well and showing improvement at every practice.

The team to play in Columbus on Saturday leaves here at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, arriving back early on Sunday morning.

Manager Kelley announces that several changes have been made in the exhibition games after leaving here, and the official list now reads as follows:

April 1, 3, 4, at Montgomery; April 15, 6, at Atlanta; April 17, 8, at Birmingham; April 9, at Louisville; April 10, 11, at Richmond; April 12, at Norfolk; April 14, at Lynchburg; April 15, 16, at Scranton; April 17, 18, at Wilkesbarre.

The expectations are that to-morrow's practice will be the hardest workout held so far, as the players are rounding up well, and can stand more work. Nothing since arriving During the evening Mr. Lichtenheim youngest member of the famous Cleveland family is apparently going to fall short of the mark of the five preceding baseball Delahantys. Joe of the Torontos has not expressed himself for publication as yet. The youngest Delahanty's name is Willle, and his withdrawal from baseball is occasioned by the fact that he has become too fat to play.

Brother Jim tells of the youngster's predicament with fine scorn:

Brother Jim tells of the youngster's predicament with fine scorn:
"Willie is a good ball-player and a good batter," is Jim's testimonial. "Be fore he got to taking on weight he looked to be the making of another big leaguer. He'd have been that but for his laziness and his gluttony. And him a welahanty! You should see him eat! And the more he ats the heavier he gets and the more he hates to work.

"I don't think he will ever play bail again, tho he has held good jobs in the Southern and Tri-State leagues, and is only a boy yet. I've told him that if he's going to insist on being a lazy man he ought to go in for a lazy man's job and join either the police or fire department in Cleveland. There is a job waiting for him. But even that looks a bit too tough for him now."

Only four teams were represented, but it is the intention of the league to run two sections—four teams to each section—the same as last year. Several changes relating to eligibility of players were discussed, and will likely be adopted at the meeting next Thursday night. There are several vacancies in this league for teams playing fast amateur ball. Any desiring to enter should apply by letter to J. R. Richards, 343 Yonge-street.

Cornwall Club Adopt Resolutions at the General Meeting -Lacrosse Notes.

CORNWALL, March 23 .- At a general meeting of the Cornwall Lacrosse Club held to-night to complete the work of the annual meeting, a resolution was passed heartily endorsing the proposal of Mr. Finlay of Montreal to reduce the number of players on a team to 10, therenumber of players on a team to 10, thereby improving the average and reducing the salary expenditure.

A resolution was also passed expressing a hope that the N.L.C. would restore field captains. It was claimed that at the worst they could not be as great a nulsance as the coach with a megaphone and would help to liven up the game. John C. Broderick was elected to fill a vacancy on the executive.

Amendments to the constitution to reduce the number of officers from 10 to 7 and to confine the voting franchise to the active members were lost. Other amendments of a routine nature were adopted. adopted. Cornwall expects to have a very strong BRANTFORD, Ont., March 22—There was an enhushastle meeting of the Canadian Beasball League here to the life. The was a content of the control of has not obtained that which it asked for.

It is no longer a question of shifting a date here, pulling a wire there to get what one wants. President Jimmie Murphy has the unanimous approval of everyone with whom he has come into contact that he is, and always has been, absolutely on the square. For Nationals to attempt to find any subtle motive behind his exercise of the power of veto with which he has been invested is nonsensical. It isn't like Nationals either to back up on a situation of this sort. The men at the helm this season have been in the game long enough to know that no good purpose is to be served by precipitating a row at the outset of the season.

And a word more, Nationals would be very well advised not to take any chances of getting in bad with the rest of the bunch. That threat of the Canadiens to break into lacrosse hangs still like the sword of Damocles over the Maisonneuve Club.

School Lacrosse for Edmonton, EDMONTON, Alt., March 23.—A school lacrosse league will in all likelihood be formed in Edmonton this summer. At least many of the local lacrosse enthusiasts are taken up with the scheme and have bromised to support it. J. H. Valentine, physical instructor of the Y. M.C.A., is one of the chief men behind the scheme and it is his intention to boost the game in Edmonton if possible.

"It is really a shame," stated Mr. Valentine yesterday, "that Edmonton is not represented in the provincial league. There is meterial galore in Edmonton or a good team, but I believe the only way to revive the game in Edmonton is to teach the youngsters the game and School Lacrosse for Edmonton. way to revive the game in Edmonton is to teach the youngsters the game and for this reason I am heartily in favor of ferming a school league in the city."
