A FIERCE REVOLVER FIGHT

New York, Oct. 22.-Three men fought a battle with pistols on an Eighth-avenue car to-day, and all of them were seriously injured. While the fight was being waged the car ran at topspeed for a half mile, with the gong sounding an alarm and the passengers lying flat on the floor to escape the shower of bullets. Thomas O'Brien, a truckman, jumped aboard the car at 31st-street, and clapping a revolver to the conductor's head, ordered him to run the car at head, ordered him to run the car at full speed, as he was pursued by a gang which intended to kill him. A moment later two more men leaped on the car and attacked the first, all three using revolvers. When their wea-pons were empty they clinched and fought with the butts of their pistols-The car rushed on down the avenue the motorman pounding on the gong and the conductor shouting for the po-
