JAIL GUARD DISMISSED.

East York Conservatives Exercised Over Sheriff's Action.

East York Conservative circles are greatly exercised over the action of Sheriff Mowat and Governor Vanzant in dismissing Guard William Frisby, who for the last year has been on the temporary staff at the jail. Frisby previous to his appointment lived in Marknam Township, and his selection was warmlation and are being very largely signed, asking for Frisby's reinstatement. If this is not done at once it is said that trouble will ensue. Sheriff Mowat stated last night that Frisby was only a temporary man, and that he was let go because there was no work for him to do, the jall population having greatly decreased lacely. There was no fault to find with Frisby. OBITUARY.

William Roaf, K.C.

William Roaf, K.C., who recently went to Vancouver, B.C., for the benefit of his health, and to attend his son's wedding, died in that city on Saturday. He was one of Toronto's best known citizens, the son of Rev. John Roaf, who was pastor in Zion Congregational Church, Toronto, for eighteen years from 1837.

Mr. Roaf practised law in Toronto from 1874 and was one of the leading men of the Ontario bar. He had served the city as alderman, member of the board of general purposes, and chairman of the Collegiate Institute board. In the Masonic order he was especially prominent, having attained to as high as the 33rd degree, holding that of P.D.D.G.M.

H. Clark Taylor. The death of H. Clark Taylor of Gananoque in Idaho Springs, Col., was announced by telegram yesterday. He leaves a widow and four brothers— Robert, George, James and Joseph-and a sister, Mrs. Southworth of Toronto. The interment will be in Gananoque.

FLOWERS CAME FROM CHOIR. Editor World: I should like to correct a statement which appeared in your paper this morning relating to the presentation to Dr. and Mrs. Tor-rington at the Metropolitan Church yesterday morning. You stated that the gift of flowers came from the congregation, whereas it came absolutely from the choir. Please insert this Geo. Clarke, Assistant Secretary. Metropolitan Church Choir.
