Picking Up This is supposed to be the dull season in real estate circles, but the past week has proved such an exception to the rule that most realty men are tak-ing an optimistic view of things and say that the present month will be one of the best for many years. Sales apoaching the $200,000 mark have been effected during the week, made up of houses selling at from $2000 to $10,000. There are numerous enquiries for stores, warehouses and industrial sites, and negotiations are in progress with several American and British firms who contemplate starting branches here if suitable sites can be secured.

Phenomenal Growth

Toronto's phenomenal growth is made clear by the half yearly report issued by City Architect McCallum vesterday. There has been an increase of nearly one thousand new buildings erected, as compared with the corresponding period of last year. The value of all new structures this year to July 31 is $10,239,330, showing an increase of
