UNION MEN HELD GUILTY

Fine of $500 Imposed on Miners' President-Case Will Be Appealed.

COBALT, Sept. 6.—(Special). — The trial of James McGuire, president of the Miners' Union of Cobalt; 100ert Roadhouse and William Hewitt, opened before Magistrate Brown. The cnarge was inducing miners to go on strike.

Mr. Ardagh, for the defence, raised the boligection that the magistrate nad no jurisdiction to try the case and pass sentence. The magistrate, nowever, took a different view and found McGuire guilty of the charge and fined him $500 and costs or six months in jail. On Roadhouse and Hewitt judg ment was reserved until the appeal of the McGuire sentence, which will be heard the first week in October.

In the meantime McGuire is allowed to go at large, but the public meetings which have been held the miners on this square in Cobalt are to be discontinued.
