

Only One Objection.

There is only one objection to Mother Seigel's Syrup: its curative power is so great that those who use it for a time soon need it no more. For sick headache, which usually arises from a sour or foul stomach, and for the feeling of lassitude and weariness that always accompanies indigestion—for these things Seigel's Syrup is a sovereign remedy. And the best of it is that the Syrup does not merely relieve—it cures; its effects are lasting. Every family would be happier and richer if they would keep it in the house and learn to use it and depend upon it, for by so doing they could keep well, which is even better than to get well. We keep the Syrup in our family and praise it to all our friends. The above is an extract from a letter from Mary W. Havey, Post-mistress at Freeport, N.S.

The Doctors Didn't Understand.

In the year 1883, Mr. Reuben Hurlbut, of Myrtle, Ont., had an attack of acute indigestion. The family physician was called in and succeeded in relieving some of the most painful symptoms, but at that point his skill was exhausted. The real trouble not only remained undisturbed but rapidly developed into chronic dyspepsia. Fearing that he was about to become an invalid for life, he visited a physician at Whitby—a man of high reputation in his profession—and asked him to take charge of his case and spare no effort to arrest the progress of the malady. This was done, and for six months Mr. Hurlbut followed the physician's advice and took his medicine. Unhappily there was no good result whatever, as the patient declined from week to week. His strength and flesh failed, and he suffered from all those distressing peculiarities of the disease which are elsewhere described in this book. Discouraged and disheartened he was then counselled to try the homœopathic doctors, which he did. He went to one of the best practitioners of this school in Toronto and once again repeated the facts of his case and told him what had been already fruitlessly done. The medical gentleman listened and finally gave the patient some medicine to use at his home. Concerning the effect of this Mr. Hurlbut says: "If I had continued taking it I believe I should not have lived long, I was compelled to give it up." At this time, when he was so low in health and hope, he happened to hear of Mother Seigel's Syrup as a cure for all diseases of the digestive organs. He began using it and began getting better almost at the same time. He rapidly gained in flesh and can now attend to his business as well as ever he could. In speaking of the value of Mother Seigel's Syrup Mr. Hurlbut recently remarked: "I would not be without it if it cost me $2 a bottle."

There are Many Like Them.

There is a lady living near Chatsworth, Ont., who could not eat any solid food without suffering the greatest distress. What to do she did not know, for the physicians seemed to have no medicine that would reach the case. After a time she found out in some way about Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup and resolved to try if it would help her. She has used three bottles and can now enjoy and digest her meals. Mr. Samuel Foster, chemist, of Chatsworth, who mentions the above case, also says he knows of many others which he can furnish if he is called upon to do so.

Plenty Of People Feel So.

When a man has suffered for years with any complaint and taken medicine until he is disgusted with the name and sight of it, and is no better off than he was at the start, he is in no condition to put much faith in any more so-called remedies. This was exactly the case with Mr. W. H. Miller, of Severn Bridge, Ontario. He had been plagued with dyspepsia and impure blood (they always go together) and when he was advised to try Seigel's Syrup and Pills he was just in the right mood to refuse. But he did try them, nevertheless, and now he calls them "wonder-workers." Yet the wonders they perform are due to the fact that they are a wise combination of the very roots and herbs nature has made to grow on purpose to heal our pains and sickness.

Suiting the Word to the Action.—A New York Sunday-school teacher told her pupils that when they put their pennies into the contribution box she wanted each one to repeat a Bible verse suitable for the occasion. The first boy dropped in his cent, saying: "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver." The next boy dropped his penny into the box saying: "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord." The third and youngest boy dropped in his penny saying: "A fool and his money are soon parted."

Mother Seigel's Operating Pills are purely vegetable and contain no mineral poison.