

MAYORAL FIGHT IN TORONTO

TWO CANDIDATES APPEARED

Macdonald and McMurrich Talked to North Toronto Liberals in Jackson's Hall.

BOTH CHEERED AS THEY SHOOK HANDS

Ald. McMurrich Claims That Mayor Shaw Should Leave the Field, as Promised.

A fairly large crowd gathered in Jackson's Hall last night to hear the majority and other candidates for municipal honors, who had been invited to speak by the North Toronto Liberal Club. The meeting throughout appeared to be in favor of Macdonald, and when he arrived at the hall his presence was the signal for cheering, which lasted until he had taken his seat. Mayor Shaw was to have been there, but for some reason or other was not present.

Ald. McMurrich, upon his arrival, warmly shook hands with his opponent, E. A. Macdonald. The incident seemed to please the audience, as the act was followed by cheers.

A Word for McMurrich

The first speaker was McMurrich, who explained that he had no idea of being called upon, otherwise he would not have been present. However, seeing that he was there, he thought that more attention should be paid to the election of school trustees, which is just as important as any other municipal election. The many years that he had been on the board and his past record were reasons why he felt that the voters should support him.

Peter McDuffry spoke of the transportation question, which he says is of great importance to Toronto. "The city has added herself upon the fine system of education it has, while at the same time has been neglectful of this most important question."

J. H. Allen, a candidate for school trustee, appealed to the meeting for their support, and promised, if elected, to use his power to advance the welfare of the school system.

W. E. Raney, a candidate for alderman, was of the opinion that the law should be amended so that no man or body of men could control or hinder the improvement of a locality that was necessary to a city's advancement. He was also not in favor of abolishing the local improvement system.

E. A. Macdonald Cheered

E. A. Macdonald, upon being greeted with loud applause, began by saying he was pleased that the misconception which has existed in the minds of many as to his position, and that he was not a candidate, was being dispelled. The Mayor himself, even going as far as to admit that he didn't know him. In answer to a question that appeared in The World, that he would not disturb R. J. Fleming, if he continued as he is doing, he said that he would not interfere with him, but that he would see to it that justice be done at his hands, and accordingly regulated the idea that he would use the public trust in any way to gratify his own personal wishes.

A Hive of Partisans

"At present," the City Hall is a hive of partisan workers. If elected he would cause a resolution to be passed in such terms as would demand that the charges made in his campaign against the street railway, in such a manner that no government can ignore them and live. The claim of fraud," he said, "was fully established by Mr. Laidlaw's letter, although that is not the only evidence he possesses of the connecting link. The anxiety of mind of the members of the council is in itself sufficient to warrant an investigation."

Ald. McMurrich's Position

Ald. McMurrich, the next speaker, said he had served the people for a number of years and if they thought that his efforts were worthy of their support, they should elect him. If returned, he promised to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

HAPPENINGS OF A DAY

Items of Passing Interest Gathered in and Around this Busy City

Alfred Ballard seeks your vote and influence as alderman for Ward 3. The Department of Fisheries will move into permanent quarters next week.

Alfred Ballard will not support the market improvement, as it is a useless waste. The annual rally of the Methodist Sunday schools will be held on Monday morning at Macey Hall.

The treasurer of Grace Hospital graciously acknowledges a donation of $200 from Mrs. William Clouston.

Word was received yesterday that the Methodist Book Room of the sudden death of Rev. H. F. Bland of Smith's Falls.

The Department of Agriculture is preparing a series of farmers' meetings in Eastern and Western Ontario, dating from Jan. 5.

Hislop Sweetman has issued a circular, in which he attributes the lack of prosperity in the churches to lukewarmness and worldly-mindedness.

Chairman S. W. Burns of the Public School Board has received a communication from Col. Otter, saying that the 500 boys who form the drill corps will receive Snider rifles.

It is said that William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., is to wed Miss Virginia Fair of San Francisco.

It is said that William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., is to wed Miss Virginia Fair of San Francisco.

It is said that William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., is to wed Miss Virginia Fair of San Francisco.

C. C. Robinson Says at Mayor Shaw's Meeting That the Fight is With Macdonald.

WHY CRAWFORD SUPPORTS MAYOR

There Are Too Many Impracticable Schemes in Toronto, Says One Speaker.

A mass meeting in the interest of Mayor Shaw was held last night in the Western Hall, at which he had been invited by C. C. Robinson, and with him on the platform were: Messrs C. O. Robinson, Richard Macdonald, Claude Macdonald, Harry Bracken, Ald. Dunn, John Ward, David Clarke, Dr. Armstrong, John Brown, J. McGhie, James Burns, Alex. Ashby, Henry Hall, Selby, Ald. Woods, ex-Ald. George Evans, John Laxton, ex-Ald. Farley and J. W. St. John.

Why He Supports Shaw

The chairman said his reasons for supporting Mr. John Shaw as a candidate for Mayor were that he had seen in Council with Mayor Shaw and had watched his actions since he had filled the position of Mayor, and thought he was the best man for the position. John Shaw had filled his position in the best interests of the city during the year. He had been very aggressive in pushing on important improvements, his quick action in the matter of the city ferry was laudable, and his action for supporting him. A man who had filled the chair for one year and taken hold of matters to any extent was a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

Bankrupt Through Schemes

Mr. Macdonald was the first speaker called upon and said the question to be asked was who was the best man to elect that Toronto might have a renewal of her old-time prosperity. The city was suffering from a lot of impracticable schemes, and he was sorry to say that the Mayor himself was bankrupt through such schemes. Last winter one of the largest contractors on the City Hall engaged him to build a new hall, and he had laid the matter before Mayor Shaw, who immediately took it up and said the men must have their license. Mayor Shaw's record during the past 14 or 15 months was a record of every day. He also spoke of the good showing Mayor Shaw had made before the Board of Aldermen.

Two Men in the Fight

Mr. C. C. Robinson thought that there were only two men in the fight, and that was between Mr. Shaw and Mr. Macdonald. He was practically out of the race. He might take a few votes from John Shaw and thereby aid him, but he was not a candidate, and therefore would confine his remarks to the actions of the other two men. Mr. Shaw had said that he was a candidate, and when a man takes such a position with regard to a city, he is bound to act with promptness when the water main has burst in the bay and is prompt to act when the water main has burst in the bay and is prompt to act when the water main has burst in the bay.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

The Second-Term Idea

J. W. St. John said that the city of Toronto was in a state of affairs that was a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U. He said that he had entered another suit, which he carried just to shake up the city government, and to get it into a state of affairs that would be a credit to the City Hall, and also see that the city got its due from the Street Railway Company, and O.P.E.U.

Ald. Macdonald is Ignored

Shaw's Meeting That the Fight is With Macdonald.

ECONOMICAL EXPENDITURE THE KEY

His Worship Replies to Macdonald's Manifesto, "In the Grip of the Gang."

A fair-sized audience met in St. Paul's Hall last evening to hear an address from Mayor Shaw on the Mayor's contest. His Worship mounted the platform alone, and for a few minutes there was a dilemma respecting a chairman. One or two names were mentioned, but each wished to be excused. At last Mr. B. M. Dunlop, assisted, and by invitation, the following took seats on the platform: B. H. Cross, John Kane, Darcy Hinds, W. B. Newcome, R. R. Davis, ex-Ald. Steiner, Dr. R. J. Wilson, James Allison, Ald. Davies, J. H. McGhie, R. S. Belfr, J. R. Allan.

The Chairman's Speech

Mr. Dunlop highly praised the Mayor's services during his year of office. Then, turning to the Mayor's candidates, he said that Ald. Macdonald should have retired, because his candidature would only add to the confusion of the city. Mr. Macdonald was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

Protest against the election of a man like E. A. Macdonald

"I protest against the election of a man like E. A. Macdonald, in this city and in this country. He is a man who is a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration."

His Worship's Address

His Worship was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

COUNCIL AND SUBORDINATE NEWS

Things That Have Happened and Will Happen Over the Whole of York County.

LIVE NEWS WAITS TILL ELECTIONS

The Victim of the Orange Seed to Be Buried—A Son of England Banquet.

Toronto Junction, Dec. 29.—(Special).—The closing meeting of the Town Council was held in the Council Chamber tonight, the Mayor, Dr. G. W. Chalmers, presiding. Many personalities were indulged in and for a long time the discussions were of a very acrimonious nature. The trouble started by Councilor Abbott regarding the financial statement being passed after the financial statement had been printed, also in accusing Councilor Peterson of irregularities in the Works Department. The Mayor joined in by pointing out an irregularity in which Councilor Abbott was concerned in regard to a certain catch basin put in on his property, and then Councilor Abbott attacked the Mayor regarding a sewer, which he caused the Mayor should have paid for. Councilor Hyatt then took a hand in and showed that the town was responsible for the payment of the sewer and the Mayor, after which they quitted down and became more amiable. The Mayor vacated the chair and Councilor Laughton addressed the council in a pleasant manner. He had pleasure in reading the following resolution, moved by Councilor Peterson and seconded by Councilor Laughton: "That the Mayor be and he is authorized to pay the salary of the Mayor during his term of office."

The Mayor's Speech

Mr. Dunlop highly praised the Mayor's services during his year of office. Then, turning to the Mayor's candidates, he said that Ald. Macdonald should have retired, because his candidature would only add to the confusion of the city. Mr. Macdonald was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely man to carry the measures that would lead to a successful administration.

The Mayor's Address

The Mayor was cheered as he came to speak. After thanking the electors of confidence to him, the Mayor referred to the past year as one of property, and he said that he was a man who was putting on a show, and he was not a man who was a second year, unless he has done something to the city, and the question was whether the alderman, and Mayor Shaw was a likely