CONSERVATIVE ELECTORS OF WEST TORONTO

On Monday you must make your choice between the Conservative candidates in Class B.

One candidate bases his claim upon his nomination by the regular party convention. He points to no past services to the party, and can point to none. He does not and cannot claim to have ever actively identified himself with any great measure of party policy, nor yet with any great public movement in the interest of the people. His only claim is that he secured a majority vote in a convention which represented not more than five per cent of the Conservative electors.

The other candidate was brought into the field by a requisition signed by men of all parties, among them more Conservatives than there were delegates at the other convention. He can point to a long and honorable record of clean and effective party service. On the great public questions that have arisen during the past forty years he never failed to take his place actively on the side of the people. He served his country as a volunteer in the Fenian Raid, and again in the Red River Rebellion. He has enjoyed the personal confidence of every leader of the Conservative party for thirty years. His record is that of a man honorable in every walk of life, never betraying a trust and never proving false to a friend.

LIBERAL ELECTORS OF WEST TORONTO

You too must for all practical purposes make your choice between the two Conservative candidates in class B. To vote for Mr. J. B. Hay is simply to disfranchise yourselves. The returns of the last election show that the Conservative vote in the riding was more than double the vote cast for all other candidates. So even if Mr. Wright and Mr. McPherson should divide the Conservative vote equally, and Mr. Hay should poll every other vote, he would still fall hundreds short of election.

You have these choices then:

(1) You can vote for a corporation lawyer who will work for the corporations within his party, and who is not even suspected of possessing personal independence.

(2) You can vote for a tried, tested and proven friend of public rights, who will work within his party for public ownership, civil service reform, direct legislation and other great popular reforms, and who has the independence to work for these without his party if he must.

(3) You can throw your votes away.

WORKINGMEN OF WEST TORONTO.

You also are practically confined to the same choice as your liberal fellow electors. Your choice should be somewhat more easily made, however. No one believes that the candidate placed in the field by the independent labor party can come within thousands of being elected, and as the Liberal candidate's election is also impossible, you must choose:

(1) To vote for a corporation lawyer who has no sympathy with your class, and who as lawyer and lobbyist is bound up with the trusts and monopolistic corporations whose interests are always directly in conflict with yours.

(2) You can vote for a man whose whole life has proved his unselfish devotion to your interests and who has the ability and the knowledge of industrial matters and economic questions that will enable him to be in the best and truest sense a representative of labor.

(3) You, too, can throw your votes away.

Either A. W. Wright or W. D. McPherson will be the class B. member for West Toronto. Either West Toronto will be represented by a corporation lawyer-lobbyist, whose professional relations have been and will remain opposed to the interests of the people, and who will be just as faithful and no more faithful to his party as the interests of his corporation clients will allow.

Or, West Toronto will be represented by a man whose record is that of a friend of all movements and all legislation in the public interest; a man of the people who has always been for the people, and who will be just as faithful, and no more faithful, to his party as devotion to the best interests of the whole people will permit.

The choice should not be difficult to make. If the voters will throw off their party blinkers they will make it easily.

THE ISSUE IN NORTH TORONTO.

Of all the outrageous devices the now desperate opposition is using in its frenzied attacks upon the provincial government none is more discreditable than the charge that Premier Whitney has stealthily abandoned the Beck power policy. This, of course, is an attempt to turn the edge of the argument founded on Mr. A. G. MacKay's failure to "trust the people" with his own policy on this, the main issue of the election. He evidently started out on his campaign determined at all costs to avoid pledging himself to any definite course of action in the matter of cheap Niagara power. In plain English, Mr. A. G. MacKay wants to get into office with a blank cheque from the electors of the province in order that he may make it payable and deliver it to the electrical monopolists, whose scheme to sew up Ontario, its municipalities and industries, was balked by the Whitney-Beck policy, and who now look to the opposition for the means of re-establishing their hold on the greatest of provincial water powers.

Mr. MacKay's line of conduct has been closely followed by the candidates who are aligned under his banner and by none more astutely than in the case of D. C. Hossack, who asks to be returned by the electors of North Toronto. Mr. Hossack came into prominence thru his open letter denouncing the gross electoral corruption that flourished under the aegis of the Ross government. At that time he was fiercely scored and scarified by the Liberal machine organs that have, since his second open letter attacking the present government, restored him into favor. He announced himself to be an independent candidate with a pet reform of his own, succinctly crystallized into "Abolish the Bars." It is not a plank in the opposition platform, and no practical result can follow from it. But it served its primary purpose, which was to obscure and sidetrack the one outstanding issue of the election, cheap Niagara power. On this point Mr. Hossack in his earlier public appearances contented himself with a general declaration of belief in public ownership and operation to a limited but unspecified extent, coupling it with an explanation that in his view there was little difference between that principle and public control. In other words, Mr. Hossack had no real belief in the Whitney-Beck power policy, and his later asseverations of loyalty to it have only been extracted by the pressure of public opinion.

Mr. Hossack is a member of the league whose main object is to carry into effect in this province the principle of public ownership and operation of all utility and service monopolies. Premier Whitney's power policy is the first serious effort made by any government to protect the rights of the people in the provincial franchises. It is therefore of supreme importance to the province that the Whitney-Beck power scheme be sustained at this election and that the electors be invited to declare themselves with no uncertain voice in its favor. Mr. Hossack has invited only perfunctory support and has endeavored to supersede it by his irrelevant introduction of the abolition of the bars—a matter which the premier has expressed his readiness to leave with the localities interested. By his action Mr. Hossack has shown himself to be no real friend of cheap power, and as a supporter of Mr. MacKay he has leagued himself with the interests and the party that are striving to bring it to naught. Every elector of North Toronto, therefore, who desires to have the city freed from the electric ring should support Mr. Shaw, whose attitude towards cheap power has been straight and consistent throughout. Mr. Shaw has explicitly declared himself for public ownership and operation of franchise monopolies and will support the Whitney-Beck power policy in its entirety. Mr. McNaught and he are the men to represent North Toronto at this crucial moment for the future of the city and of Ontario.

ELECT JOSEPH RUSSELL.

It is doubtful if the legislature can have too much young blood. Age supplies wisdom, or is supposed to, but youth provides energy, and there is no supposition about it. Joseph Russell, one of the candidates in Class B. for East Toronto, as a politician, has, as somebody puts it, yet to cut his eye teeth, but he has seemingly, judging from his address, which appeared in this paper the other day, some pretty good gums to afford root and development to those said eye teeth. He is thoroughly sound on pretty well every plank of the progressive platform. He does not falter on the question of public ownership. He is heart and soul with it from beginning to end. He is no ardent admirer of corporations and he is a general, but independent supporter of the Whitney government. He is prepared to line up with the supporters of that government as the best production of the two great parties, but he reserves the right to think in the best interests of the province. In short, while believing that the opposition have not the material wherewith to give Ontario good government, he yet desires to retain the right and privilege to differ from his friends if he thinks any detail of their policy is unwise and inadvisable. Such a man is a safe man if his antecedents and standing in the community warrant confidence in his judgment. Mr. Russell is a young man, a man of business, and a sincere man, and as such on good grounds appeals to his fellow electors of East Toronto, among whom his family have lived and thrived for a generation. Joseph Russell should be elected as Dr. Pyne's coadjutor.

THE FIRE HOSE CONTRACT.

What premium should the City of Toronto pay in making purchases, in order to benefit a company which has its factory located within the city limits?

The city recently advertised for tenders on its annual supply of fire hose. The Canadian Rubber Company tendered on 4000 feet of 3 1/2-inch (high pressure) hose, at $1.20 per foot, but the board of control have recommended that the order be placed with a firm in Toronto at $1.68 per foot, an increase of exactly 40 per cent. Both lines of hose carry the same guarantees, both for time and pressure, and both may be said to be equally well and favorably known.

High pressure hose is in use in only two Canadian cities—Winnipeg and Toronto. Of the 5500 feet in use in Winnipeg, the Canadian Rubber Company supplied 5000, and Chief Buchanan of the Winnipeg Fire Department pronounces it "satisfactory in every particular."

The Canadian Rubber Company manufactures its goods in Montreal, but for many years its strongest branch has been established in Toronto, occupying a well-known corner on Yonge and Front-streets, assessed (with stock) at $100,000. As a large ratepayer, the company might reasonably expect to have its tender receive consideration.

The questions arise: Why should not the City of Toronto save for its ratepayers the sum of $1920 on this order? And Does the city wish to have tenders on its hose requirements from firms outside its own limits?

Naturally, if prices and qualities were equal, the bulk of the order should be placed with the Toronto factory, but, as matters stand, the board of control, contrary to the recommendation of the chief of the fire department, has decided that no part of the order be placed with the Canadian Rubber Company.

CANADA'S BIG THINGS

Canada has the largest grain mill in the British Empire (at Montreal), and the largest grain elevator in the world (at Port Arthur).

Canada has the largest lift-lock, the longest bridge-span, the thickest coal seam, the largest nickel mine, and the largest zinc smelter in the world.

There is no production of Canada of which she is more justly proud than the "Canadian" automobile. These cars are built for "quality," not for price, and from one end of Canada to the other they have demonstrated their superiority.

managers of the Imperial Paper Mills of Canada and E. R. C. Clarkson.

At a general meeting at Osgoode Hall yesterday of the members of the Law Society of Ontario, the following gentlemen, who have heretofore filled the lectureships in the law school, and who, along with Dr. Hoyle, the principal, compose the faculty, were re-appointed: Mr. E. Douglas Armour, K.C., on real property and constitutional law; Alfred H. Marsh, K.C., on equity and third year practice; John King, K.C., on evidence, criminal law, construction of statutes and statute law, and Canadian constitutional history and law; McGregor Young, K.C., on common law, personal property, company law and jurisprudence.

The principal, who lectures on contracts, private international law, first year criminal law and second year practice is at present in England attending the Pan-Anglican Conference. His report showed the school to be in a highly satisfactory condition. The number of students was large, notwithstanding a considerable increase in the fees, and included students from all parts of Canada. The attendance at the lectures and moot courts, the interest taken in their work and their conduct generally, were also creditable. The student body of the law school is evidently a vigorous educational institution.

OFFERED TO KILL DREYFUS PATRIOT WAS REFUSED

Attempt on Life of Major Arouses Latent Hatred Smouldering in Hidden Places.

PARIS, June 5.—Whether yesterday's attempt upon the life of Major Alfred Dreyfus, at the time of the canonization of Emile Zola, in the Pantheon, was only the individual act of a man believing himself to be an outraged patriot, or had behind it an incipient nationalist plot, the Republic press is unanimous in deploring the incident and believes it injured rather than aided the cause.

Even the papers which doubted the wisdom of trying Zola in the Pantheon, think that the shooting of Major Dreyfus consolidated the Republican sentiment and they evidently desire to see the incident die out as quickly as possible.

Any attempt to reopen the old Dreyfus issue at the trial of Louis Gregori, the man who shot the major yesterday, they point out, can easily be frustrated as being plainly extraneous.

On the other hand, the fury of the Nationalist papers is unbounded. L'Action Francaise fires a broadside which recalls the most exciting days of Dreyfus and Boulanger. At the head of its columns this newspaper prints a statement by Charles Maur. It is likely the authorities will investigate in this article the writer says that on Wednesday night "A resolute patriot" visited M. Daude and Lieut. Boisserey and himself offered to kill Dreyfus, but his proposal was rejected.

A leading editorial in this paper appeals to the country to turn to the Duke of Orleans for redress, and concludes with these words:

"Do you desire that Zola's body be ejected from the Pantheon? 'Do you desire to make Dreyfus the execution block? 'If so, invoke your king.'"

The paper also republishes a number of London reviews of the Dreyfus trial, in which it is a traitor. The decision of the court of cassation to cut off the time for an appeal, the paper says, is illegal, and it concludes its article as follows: "What we ask for Dreyfus is not six balls from a revolver, but the 12 bullets from the execution squad."

Other newspapers declare that Gregori, much grieved at the recent death of his mother, has lately manifested signs of mental derangement.

SHOULDN'T BE ASSESSED.
Minister of Works Writes a Protest in Behalf of Employees.

OTTAWA, June 5.—Hon. William Fugatey, minister of public works, has written to the mayor protesting against the assessment of civil servants for income.

He has been informed that civil servants must make the statutory declaration. He takes serious objection to the city's course. Meantime the city solicitor says Ottawa's position is legal.

Two Ancient Cases.
A warrant having lived five years and then haled Michael Muirhead of Orillia into custody died quietly in police court yesterday morning when it was discovered that the complainant, together with all other witnesses, had vanished into the realm of the forgotten.

Not so, a similarly ancient charge against William Eaton of theft of a fur coat from Bliton Bros. This still lived and was proven, so that Eaton went to jail for 60 days.

Bigamy Charge Falls Thru.
Minnie Evans of Hamilton and Thomas Kirkpatrick of Jarvis-street faced the charge of bigamy in police court yesterday morning. Each had been previously married, but disclaimed any wedding. He between themselves.

"A civil marriage," was T. C. Robinson's suggestion. They were remanded a week, when the case will be dropped in the absence of further evidence.

Wanted—University President.
REGINA, June 5.—It is understood that the government has written to a number of prominent university men to enquire if they would accept an offer, if made, for the presidency of the new University of Saskatchewan.

Nothing has been done as yet toward organization, it being thought best to leave all matters until the advice of the new president may be taken.
