AMUSEMENTS

JOHN GRIFFITH AT THE OPERA HOUSE ON MONDAY

John Griffith came to Moncton with a reputation as an interpreter of Shakespeare, and he chose for his presentation the great tragedy, Macbeth. To say that the audience appreciated the manner in which the character and play were presented is putting it only mildly. Every one would be glad to see Mr. Griffith again witness the play, or to see Mr. Griffith and his company in other of the immortal bard's plays. Miss Totten, as Lady Macbeth, gave a strong and forceful characterization—Moncton Times.

The support was good, particularly Banquo, taken by Olaf Skjavan.

Mr. Griffith and his company will open a three days' engagement at the Opera House on Monday.

THE NICKEL THEATRE

The children will have another of their Saturday afternoon feasts of good pure amusement at the Nickel today. The bill has been selected with care and no sensational or suggestive feature will be found in the hour-long programme. Parents have learned that it is absolutely safe to send their little ones to this house, the pictures are so carefully censored. Tonight the week will be terminated with a specially long programme.

On Monday, Victoria Day, the Nickel will open at 10 a. m. and before dinner time a programme of talking pictures, songs, pianologues by Lucien Kenney and main pictures will be tendered the early comers. In the afternoon the same big holiday bill will rule, also in the evening.

Mr. Kenney is a highly refined pianologist, one who sits at the piano and recites, mimics, recites Kipling imperatorians and makes his hearers laugh and cry almost at will. He is a most amusing trick pianist as well. The Talking Picture Company will play His Wife's Mother, a co-media. Miss Evans has a new song, the orchestra will have national airs merry hits from New York. Owing to usual crowds on holidays intending to see the Star's show.

AT THE STAR

The cosy little Star will be head-quarter for North End people who good up-to-date show with no clippers and bright New York. On Monday—the public holiday—the theatre will be a blaze of fun and from 1.30 until 10.30 at night with a programme that for novelty and catch will suit everybody down to the gro. If you are going to plan on enjoying glorious 24th, in town you will not half the fun that's going if you do not see the Star's show.

CARLETON METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNUAL

The annual meeting of the committee of management of the Carleton Methodist Sunday school was held on Thursday evening. The election of officers resulted as follows: Alfred Bunney, superintendent; W. D. Backin, assistant; John Myles, secretary; B. C. Holder, treasurer; E. Thompson, librarian; Harold Cheyne, assistant; Miss W. B. Haslam, superintendent of the home department; Miss Louise Beattie, superintendent of the cradle roll; Miss Grace Cheyne, pianist; Miss Rene Brown, assistant.

June 27 will be set apart in the Sunday school as children's day. A committee was appointed to arrange for a Sunday school picnic. Satisfactory reports for the departments were received. The mission contributions for the year showed an increase over last year's.

Drug Clerk—Do you wish some ammonia, ma'am? Mrs. Parvaneh—Yes; some—er—er—acrobatic spirits of ammonia.
