REPORT.

"And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in Heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost : teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you ; and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."—Matt. xxviii. 18-20.

Thus spake Jesus to his disciples, when He gave them the commission to go forth, preaching repentance and remission of sins to the world. This commission is as wide as the world, and universal as man, and is as binding on the followers of Christ now, as on the Disciples then. The Church must not cease teaching until all the nations, "from the river unto the ends of the earth," are found sitting at the feet of Jesus. We must not set about this work with indifference and coldness of heart, but summon all the love and enthusiasm of our nature, and earnestly strive to spread the knowledge of Christ among men. The success and triumphs of the past, the opening and inviting fields of the present time, and immortal souls perishing for lack of knowledge, all unite in urging the disciples of Christ to present and active effort to save souls : to cry aloud and spare not, and lift up their voice like a trumpet.
