

General Regulations.

1. "Sessions and Presbyteries are enjoined to make diligent and careful enquiry whether any young men are to be found within their bounds whose attention should be specially directed to the claims of Christ upon them with respect to the ministry of His Church, to aid and encourage in all proper ways suitable young men who may declare their purpose to consecrate themselves to this sacred vocation, and watchfully to keep their eye upon any who are prosecuting a liberal education, and whose piety and abilities make it desirable that their thoughts should be turned toward the ministerial office."
2. "It is the duty of Presbyteries to examine all who present themselves as wishing to enter on the study of Theology, respecting their moral and religious character, their motives, and their general fitness to study for the ministry. If satisfied, the Presbytery certifies them to the Senate of the college which they propose to attend."
3. "Students on entering Theology, or on intimating their purpose to study for the ministry, must be members of the church in full communion; and all such students are required, during their course, to be in communion with some congregation of the church in the place where they are prosecuting their studies."
4. Students may enter on the study of Theology as graduates in Arts, or as passmen in subjects of the Arts Course required by the Church, or as undergraduates of the third or fourth year in Arts.
5. The subjects required of passmen are English Literature, Latin (two sessions), Greek (three sessions), Mathematics, Physics, Logic, Metaphysics and Ethics. When a student fails to produce pass certificates in any of these subjects he shall be examined therein by the Senate's examining committee.
6. In certifying students to the Hall, Presbyteries are authorized to accept a degree of B. A. (English, Metaphysics and Greek being included in the course), or pass certificates in the subjects required.
7. Special cases must be brought by Presbytery before Synod or Assembly.
8. Students of Divinity are required to appear every year before the Presbyteries within whose bounds they reside, and to give in a written exercise on a prescribed subject.
