His Reputation Rests on Foundation of Service, Says Gazette MONTREAL, Nov. 24-Rt. Hon. W.

S. Fielding, former Canadian Minister of Finance, is celebrating his 78th birthday at Ottawa today. Commenting on the anniversary, the Montreal Gazette says: "Congratulations will reach the distinguished ex-minister from every part of the Dominion, and no doubt from other lands as well, and they will express a sentiment that is felt by all Canadians of whatever party allegiances or political convictions. Nova Scotia has given many able men to the public life of Canada, men who have exerted strong and enduring influences upon their country and its development. Mr. Fielding belongs to this group and to an inner circle of two or three who are inner circle of two or three circle of two an inner circle of two or three who have in special degree served the Dominion with honor to themselves and with credit to the province from which they came. Mr. Fielding's reputation stands without blemish and rests upon a solid foundation of public service extending over a long period of years. He passes today another milestone in a long, useful and honorable life and it will be the general wish of his fellow-citizens that the esteem in which they hold him may in some measure entirely may be a served with severe constipation and was a nervous wreck.
