ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATIONS AMONG CHURCH EVENTS OF SUNDAY HERE

Noted Choir at Queen Square—Carleton Methodists
Have Observance—Promotion Day in Sunday School—Visiting Preachers.

The 130th anniversary service at the Queen Square Methodist church last evening was attended by a congregation that taxed the capacity of the building and many who wished to attend had to leave the church door. The Yarmouth Wesley church male choir was heard during the service to excellent advantage. The church was decorated with pine and rowan berries which gave an autumn touch to the scene. Rev. Robert Smart preached in the morning, taking for his topic "The church of today" and again in the evening, his topic being "Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever."

Rev. Neil MacLachlan, pastor of Queen square church, conducted the services, and made the announcements for the anniversary week. Mrs. Blair McLean, organist, played well, favorite voluntaries. She played Handel's "Largo" for the evening prelude. The Gilmour, treasurer and historian of the church, gave a concise history of the church. Among the wardens who assisted in the handling of the large congregations were N. A. Rogers, superintendent of the Sunday school, and R. Dunson Smith, recording steward.

Rev. Mr. MacLachlan referred in the evening to the Yarmouth choir as having formed a strong fellowship between the Methodists of St. John and Wesley church, Yarmouth. The visitors, with the regular choir, made 50 voices to lead the great congregation, which sang heartily the old hymns of the Protestant church. Mrs. F. G. Spencer, Miss Frances Murdoch and Mrs. Frank A. Goddard were additional singers for the regular choir. Mrs. Lewis V. Lingley led the congregational singing.

Wonderful Singing.
The singing of the Yarmouth male choir is being freely and enthusiastically commented upon today. That Yarmouth could produce such an organization seems something of a surprise, and that Professor Roy Williams has been able to accomplish so much with a small body of singers in but two years is almost incredible to those who heard the choir at Queen Square church Sunday. Mr. Williams, who is the organist at the Wesleyan Methodist church, Yarmouth, has had these singers under his training ever less than the time mentioned, and what he has accomplished cannot be understood by those who did not have the pleasure of hearing them. However, Mr. Williams could not work miracles, and latest talent represented by musical intelligence of a very high order must have been by no means lacking in each and all of those under his baton.

Protect Your Children from Goitre

Everywhere—particularly in fresh water areas you see large, hideous cases of goitre, not only unsightly, but often disastrous to mental and physical health.

Now, through scientific research a practical preventive has been found. A preventive that permits you to safeguard your children easily, without medicine.

The Canadian Salt Company solved the situation for Canadians by introducing a minute particle of iodine into the purest of salt—Windsor Table Salt. It has received the official sanction of hundreds of physicians and scientists as a practical goitre preventive. Windsor Iodized Salt cannot be distinguished from pure Windsor Table Salt by taste and we recommend it to you for use on the table and in all your cooking.

You see goitre protection in your children.

Yesterday and the church was most attractively decorated with fruits, flowers, grain and vegetables. Large congregations attended both services and special music added to the inspiration of the service. The choir sang anthems that were much enjoyed. Rev. R. Taylor McKim, rector, was the preacher in the morning and his message was heard with great appreciation. In the evening Rev. A. L. Gardiner was the preacher and spoke impressively. A special offertory was taken and amounted to more than $300. The Church of All Saints, in East St. John, also held its harvest festival yesterday and the church hall was filled to the doors. Rev. Mr. Gardiner conducted the service and preached the sermon.

Gossip.
"Gossip is Sin Against Religion" was the theme of a forceful sermon delivered in Knox Presbyterian church, last night, by Rev. R. Moorhead Legate. Mr. Legate took for his text the quotation from the Epistle of St. James, "If any man among you seem to be religious and bridleth not his tongue that man's religion is vain." Mr. Legate pointed out that St. James dealt with the common everyday aspects of life and emphasized the practical side of religion and gave a reminder that the use of the tongue played an important part in determining the religion of the man or woman. He said that in the first place gossip sinned against religion as it was a waste of time and the Christian ought to try to redeem and put to good use all of the time he has. In the second place gossip sinned against religion as it transgressed the vital principle of Christianity, "that ye love one another." In the third place the habit of gossip deteriorated the mind of the gossip and lowered his standards, interfering with his holding a big generous and kindly view of life. In closing Mr. Legate appealed for greater attention being given to the solemnity and beauty of words.

Carleton Methodist.

The Carleton Methodist church fittingly celebrated its 80th anniversary yesterday. The church building was first opened on May 15, 1842 when Rev. Dr. Rice preached the first sermon and the Sunday school which now has an enrollment of 225 was opened on May 18, 1845. The present pastor is Rev. F. T. Bertram who gave an eloquent address at the morning service yesterday. Miss M. Beatty is the present superintendent of the Sunday school. The church has a surplus choir of 80 voices and its leader is F. J. Punter. The men's Bible class under the direction of Rev. F. T. Bertram has a membership of 50 and is prospering. Every department of the church work is flourishing and the church celebrated its anniversary with a prevailing spirit of optimism.

At the service yesterday morning Mr. Bertram recalling the early days of the church read an extract from a bound copy of an old Methodist magazine dated 1841. He said previous to 1842 the Methodists in Carleton met in
