

ROYAL CHRISTMAS CARDS FOR 1923

Royalty in England has its Christmas cards as well as the rest of us. This year the Prince of Wales will have the one shown on left, representing "The Founding of Eton College." The queen's card will carry the picture shown in the center, "The Girlhood of Mary Queen of Scots." The King's (right) represents "William Prince of Orange landing at Torbay in 1683." All are painted by Howard Davis.

NEW MEMORIAL WINDOW UNVEILED

Stone Church Service in Memory of Late James F. Robertson.

A stained glass memorial window of great beauty of design and coloring was unveiled yesterday in St. John's (Stone) church at the morning service and was dedicated by Rev. A. L. Fleming, the rector, in memory of James F. Robertson. The act of unveiling was performed by James Robertson Curry, a grandson of Mr. Robertson. The service throughout was marked by dignity and simplicity. The new window is the second of two stained glass windows to be erected as memorials in the church. The remaining four large windows, which are now white glass, are to be replaced with stained glass and each will be erected as a memorial.

The ceremony of unveiling and dedication followed the regular order of service. J. E. Secord and George L. Warwick, the church wardens, asked Mr. Fleming, as rector, to receive and dedicate the window, and when it had been unveiled by Mr. Curry, prayer was offered, and then Mr. Fleming spoke the solemn words of dedication. Rev. Mr. Fleming prefaced his sermon with the following reference to the window and the man it commemorated.

"The beautiful window which has just been unveiled and dedicated will be a constant reminder of a great citizen and a loyal churchman and I would take this opportunity of thanking the donors very sincerely for their splendid gift to the church.

"First let me say that we had hoped to have the Bishop with us today, but this was impossible. His Lordship asked me to say that he would have considered it an honor to have been present at the dedication of this window to the memory of one who was a dear and honored friend and to whom he was indebted for countless acts of courtesy and kindness.

"It is unnecessary for me to speak at length regarding the late James F. Robertson. As one of the builders of our city his name is too well known to require any special reference from me. It is regarding his churchmanship that I should like to say a few words.

"Mr. Robertson was the son of a clergyman in this diocese, a strong Protestant and an ardent lover of the Book of Common Prayer. He knew well the problems of a rector, and that knowledge made him one of the most sympathetic and warm-hearted friends that the clergy have ever had.

"As God prospered him, he sought to express his thanks by helping others, especially those who were 'of the household of faith,' and many a struggling parish and many a harassed clergyman had good reason to bless the name of James F. Robertson.

"I cannot do better at this time than to refer to the Bishop's charge in 1921, where he points out that it was to Mr. Robertson that the widows' and orphans' fund, which has been of untold value, was due.

"It was also to his far-sighted policy that we are indebted to Rotherham Collegiate School. His generosity provided bursaries for the education of the sons of clergy at Rotherham and at Wycliffe College, Toronto.

"It would be impossible to dwell upon his private benefactions, for they extend far beyond the boundaries of the diocese, and it is inspiring to remember that today there stands a little church in the far northwest which was the gift of our friend, a small illustration of his wide vision.

"In the words of the Bishop 'we may well thank God for the record of a life, which was great because it was good; and good because it was great.' 'May God raise up many more in our beloved church to walk in his footsteps.'

In his sermon, Mr. Fleming spoke of the church and the individual. The window design shows the disciples inviting Christ to remain at their home and the inscription is as follows: "Abide with us for it is towards evening and the day is far spent."

Beneath are the following words: "To the Glory of God and in Memory of James F. Robertson, died Jan. 15, 1921, aged 61 years."

The window was made by the Robert McCausland Company in Toronto and is remarkably beautiful.

CADETS MARCH IN CHURCH PARADE

As the Cadets marched briskly up King street at about 12.45 yesterday their heads were erect and their bearing was that of well drilled soldiers. They won the admiration of passers-by and stepped smartly with 62nd Fusiliers Bagpipe Band playing martial airs. They marched five miles in their church parade yesterday and as they went up King street they were nearing the end of their long tramp, but even the smallest was marching with a swing of a tried veteran. There were 875 of the Cadets on church parade with Captain D. V. Palin in charge. They marched from the Armory to St. Jude's church and the Church of the Assumption in West St. John and back again. Cadets are to parade every alternate Sunday and will go to a different church at each parade.

At the Church of the Assumption the cadets were cordially welcomed by Rev. J. J. Ryan, parish priest. Rev. Francis Walker, of East St. John, sang High Mass and preached to a large congregation.

PRESBYTERIANS AND CHURCH UNION

In connection with this vital issue, there are some facts which you should know and think about, before you allow your church to be legislated out of existence.

DO YOU KNOW

1. There are 100,000 members of the Presbyterian Church who have never had a chance to vote on this question of Union?
2. There are thousands of our men who were overseas when the last vote was taken—the soldiers?
3. The people—who are the church—have never had a single chance to vote on the proposed Bills?

DO YOU KNOW

1. That it is now eight years since the people had a chance to vote on the question of union?
2. That during that time:—
(A) The great war ended and peace was declared?
(B) Colossal changes have taken place in commerce, industry and society?
(C) Uncertainty and unrest are distracting the minds of men?
3. That the people have never had a chance to vote on the Proposed Legislation?

Considering these facts:

IS IT RIGHT

1. To force union on the church now?
2. To ignore the new members and soldiers?
3. To pass these Bills without a vote?
4. To disrupt our ancient and beloved church?

"Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem, They shall prosper that love thee."

The nurse, the doctor, the judge—all agree

HEALTH authorities throughout Canada unanimously recommend rubbers and overshoes for fall and winter foot protection.

School nurses everywhere urge the children to wear their rubbers to and from school, and for out-door play.

In a Montreal court it was held that a person who had slipped on the ice and sued for damages, had not taken reasonable precaution because rubbers were not worn.

Active, scuffling, heedless little feet of boys and girls give rubber footwear its hardest test. All DOMINION brand rubber footwear is made with the wear quality and durability to withstand the hardest kind of wear and tear—to protect the feet and health of children and grownups.

Because of their splendid wearing quality DOMINION brand rubbers are the most economical to buy.

To the People—From the Employees of D. Magee's Sons, Ltd.

We want you to know that we feel very grateful to the people of this city and surrounding territory for the confidence they have placed in our merchandise and we, the employees, have sold more goods the first four days of this fine Money-Saving Sale than we have disposed of in weeks, yes months, previously.

We all did our best to be courteous and render good service, but in case anything did happen during our great rush and we did not serve you as well as we would have liked, we hope you will accept our apologies.

Every day the crowds seemed to get greater. We hardly had time to go out for lunch—we worked from early morning until late in waiting on the good people whom we were so glad to see taking advantage of our offerings. We know to win success, we must master every job and deliver the goods—whether in merchandise or service, in fair and honest measure to all who pay for it.

We assure you we feel highly elated that the people of this city and surrounding territory have such confidence in our store. It will always be our aim to increase this prestige and gain new friends. We haven't received a single complaint from any customer so far—about the goods or our prices. In fact, every buyer seemed to go the limit in purchasing good quantities and we know the goods will give excellent service, but we want everyone to feel that in case of any dissatisfaction we will be glad to rectify any errors, exchanging goods or refund your money and be just as pleasant about it as if you were buying more merchandise.

We again thank you for your patronage and hope to receive a visit from you the next five days. We suggest that you do your Christmas Shopping now because you can save a substantial amount of money by so doing.

We bid you welcome.

ENTHUSIASTIC APPROVAL ON EVERY HAND

Since the opening day of our sale, hundreds have testified to the unusual popularity of this remarkable selling campaign that is now forging ahead at our store.

When all is said and done, there is only one way to sell merchandise today and that is to stand back of every article sold and tell the public facts ringing with sincerity and truth.

Hundreds entered our store out of curiosity the last four or five days, but before they left, they bought a big supply of goods.

Many of the people who have visited us, we will venture to say, have not taken the time and trouble to attend a sale in years, but this is no ordinary sale and the public knows it. That is the chief reason of the great response. The people came because the merchandise was their kind of merchandise—high in quality and very low in price. This sale will be brought to an end Saturday night, December 8th and then, of course, it will be too late for you to participate in the savings.
