DOUG FAIRBANKS JR. IN PICTURES AT LAST; SAYS HE'S LIKE MERTON

It's Been His Big Ambition Nearly All His 13 Years and Now He is to Get $1,000 a Week; Wants to Work in Stories Containing "Heart Interest."

(New York Tribune.)
The sort of boy every mother hopes her son will become, that every father believes he was in his own youth, that schoolboys dream about and schoolboys envy while secretly respecting—that's Young Doug Fairbanks Jr. He is more like that than the name he affixed to the $1,000-a-week contract he signed with the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation on Wednesday, wears size 18 clothes, but his face has a size thirteen expression, to match his years. He is six feet 8 inches tall, and as sturdy as a boy several years his senior. He is blond with blue eyes and an expression reminiscent of his father's. His ready but not too frequent smile shows shining teeth.

In a voice that is shadowed by the shyness of adolescence, young Doug, in his apartment at the Hotel Algonquin yesterday, told how glad he was to work in motion pictures.
He hasn't the least idea of crowding this dad out of pictures, he said modestly. His eyes gleamed when he spoke of his father's skill in hurling sky scrapers and managing false whiskers. His mother, Mrs. James Evans, who divorced Mr. Fairbanks in 1919, agreed with the lad that his father is a great screen artist.

Severe Kidney Trouble

Mrs. F. Rinehart, Campbellville, Ont., writes:
"I had trouble with my kidneys and very frequent urination. This was followed by pains which at times were very severe. The doctor said I had inflammation of the bladder and that an operation might be necessary. To this I refused, and began using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. From the first few doses I felt the benefit. The pains left, urination was corrected, and I have had no recurrence of these ailments."

ANOTHER ST. JOHN MAN SPEAKS

Mr. Reg. Wilkins Tells How Quickly Decro Overcomes Digestive Troubles—Praises This Fine Medicine Highly.

A majority of people's ills can be traced to the stomach. When that important organ becomes weak or disordered, and fails to supply nourishment to the other organs, many ills follow. The liver, kidneys, bowels and blood all depend on the stomach to keep them going. Decro, by toning and regulating the stomach to proper working condition, quickly restores these other organs and the blood to normal, healthy action.
This is what Mr. Reg. Wilkins, of 687 Main Street, St. John, N. B., found as soon as he started taking Decro. "I was a great sufferer from stomach trouble and indigestion," says Mr. Wilkins. "Everything I ate seemed to cause gas to form and also caused burning sensation in my stomach. My kidneys were very weak and my liver was not working properly. In fact, I was very badly run down in health. I have only used two bottles of Decro, but my stomach trouble has disappeared, and my kidneys and liver are better. I am no longer constipated and have gained five pounds in weight since I began taking this wonderful medicine.

Statements like this from reliable people right in St. John should do much to convince people of the true merits of Decro. This famous remedy does not contain mercury, potash or habit forming drugs. It is composed entirely of the juices of medicinal herbs, roots, bark and leaves, prepared with scientific exactness, and acts on the vital organs, quickly, safely and with sure result. It is particularly valuable at this season of the year, when the system requires a thorough housecleaning.
Decro is being specially introduced in St. John by Ross Drug Co., 100 King Street. It is also sold by Moore's Drug Store, 105 Prince Edward Street, and F. W. Wilson, 357 Main Street. It is also sold in Fairville by T. H. Wilson, in West St. John by Watson R. Dunlop, and by a good druggist everywhere.

NOT SICK ONCE IN FOUR YEARS NOW

Mrs. Smith Declares Health Has Been Perfect Since Tanlac Ended Stomach Trouble.

"For ten years hardly a day passed that I didn't suffer from stomach trouble, but I took Tanlac four years ago and haven't had a sick day since," is the remarkable statement made recently by Mrs. Thamar Smith, 88 McGee St., Toronto, Ont.
"The little I managed to eat simply tortured me with pains in the pit of my stomach, and gas pressed around my heart causing it to skip beats until I thought it would stop altogether. I was as nervous as a witch, and lost so much sleep that I was dark and swollen under my eyes. I was so weak and run down I could hardly walk a block or do my housework, and was almost in despair.
"Tanlac certainly was a godsend in restoring me to such perfect health, and I think it's the greatest medicine ever made. Nearly everybody else on McGee Street seems to have used the treatment and are praising it too."

seen as Tom Sawyer in a new version of the book.

His characterizations will typify the America boy of high school age, which is what Douglas is now, although he has never been to high school, having had a tutor, who will accompany him to Hollywood. However, he will enter college when he is seventeen years old, for his contract specifies that his work before the camera must not interfere with his studies.

Jesse L. Lasky, at a convention of Paramount distributors, said of young Fairbanks' contract:
"I believe it is one of the most important things I have done since I entered the motion picture industry. Douglas Fairbanks Jr. is a typical American boy at his best. I liked him from the moment I saw him, and so will every other American father and mother when they see him on the screen. He is manly, handsome and remarkably athletic."

PLEADS FOR MORE BASEBALL LOTS FOR THE BOYS

Judge Landis, Chief Ruler of Game, Says it is the Best Insurance Policy Obtainable.

Chicago, May 28.—(Associated Press.) A vacant lot where boys can engage in a game of baseball is the best insurance policy obtainable, Judge Landis, baseball commissioner, believes.
The former federal jurist, always with a deep interest in boys, said that too few cities and towns have made the proper provision for a boy's playground. The average boy, he said, may not have a very great sense of justice, but no one has a keener sense of injustice.

"It is an injustice not to provide a spot where boys can enjoy themselves at will and with the knowledge they are not victims of injustice," Commissioner Landis said.

"One of my chief reasons for my interest in baseball is that I have always had a very deep interest in boys. Baseball must justify the confidence of the boy of today.
"Every boy, if he is normal, has a hero, and in times of peace that hero is an athlete. In 99 cases out of 100 that athlete is a baseball player.
"To this hero, the boy builds an altar in his heart and keeps the candles burning. Unconsciously or otherwise, he turns to that altar day after day.
"It is my desire that the figure on that altar shall be worthy of the faith placed in it."

In Chicago, with its thickly populated districts, Judge Landis said he had frequently watched baseball games played in the streets, with street cars speeding in one direction and motor trucks in another, so that the "kids" had to stop their games every minute in order to allow a street car to pass over home plate.
"Conditions like that should not exist," he declared. "Boys should be provided with a place to enjoy themselves. It's the best insurance in the world against crime, mischief and disease."

Big Cache Of Liquor Found
Liquor Inspectors Crawford and Klein, accompanied by a customs officer, on Saturday afternoon discovered a lot of liquor consisting of between thirty-five and forty cases in a stretch of woods in the rear of what is known as the Higgins farm on the Black River road. Following a tip the officers hastened out there and when they got to the farm found all in order. A wagon track was noticed leading to a strip of woods and following this the inspectors came to two large mounds covered with brush and tar paper. Investigation revealed a quantity of liquor valued at retail prices by the bottle at about $2,500. The lot was made up of Haig and Haig's Five Star and Black and White. No arrests have been made in the matter yet.

MAUDE ADAMS TO STAGE IN THE FALL, IS REPORT

New York, May 28.—Maude Adams, famous actress who quit the stage because of illness in 1915, will return in the autumn in a revival of her greatest success, "Peter Pan" and in three other Barrie plays, one of them a new effort on which she has been working for some time. Miss Adams was said to have been chased by her illness and her footlights by Barrie, whom she visited recently in England.
