RECENT DEATHS

William H. Weswell.

Halifax, Jan. 4.—William H. Weswell, who was for nearly forty years county clerk and treasurer for the municipality of Halifax, died last night, aged 89. Mr. Weswell, who was born in Newcastle, N. B., in 1830, is survived by his wife and one son, A. B. Weswell, head of the A. M. Bell Company.

The death of William Wheeler, formerly a resident of St. John and Fredericton, occurred in Montreal, Friday morning, Jan. 2. He with several others built the Queen Hotel in Fredericton. He was twice married and his second wife and two sons survive. Mrs. F. C. Colwell of this city, a child by his first marriage, also survives.

The death of Mrs. Mary A. Goss took place Dec. 28 in Somerville, Mass., at the age of sixty-six years. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Cochran of Gardner's Creek, N. B. She leaves one daughter, three brothers, including William of this city, and three sisters, including Mrs. Thomas Mair of Gardner's Creek.

The death of James P. Feeney of Sussex took place at his home last evening. For several years he was manager of the harness department of the Sussex Mercantile Company. Besides his wife, two daughters survive.

John B. Hamm died at his home in Johnston, Queens county, Jan. 2. He leaves two sons and one daughter.
