CAILLAUX DEFENDS HIS DEALING WITH THE BONNET ROUGE

Ex-Premier Says He Has Not Subscribed to It Since War Began—Applause in Court Quickly Subdued.

Paris, May 14—Former Premier Caillaux was brought into court from his prison cell today to testify in the treason trials growing out of the Bonnet Rouge affair. He was called at the request of counsel for M. Landau, one of the accused, who was a reporter for the Bonnet Rouge.

Before M. Caillaux began his testimony, Col. Voyer, the presiding officer, admonished him to confine his remarks within the proper limits.

"The only point at issue," said Col. Voyer, "is whether the witness mentioned the name of Marx, of Mannheim (a German banker, through whom hundreds were supplied for the Bonnet Rouge propaganda) to M. Landau in September, 1916. Please keep to that point."

M. Caillaux denied emphatically that he had mentioned Marx in 1916. He said he had never heard of the man until July, 1917, and then only when the Bonnet Rouge case was discussed in the chamber of deputies. It was brought out that the name and address of Marx were found on a slip of paper among the documents belonging to M. Caillaux, which were discovered at Florence. The former premier explained this by saying the paper was handed to him by a Swiss merchant, who was introduced to him under the pretext that he was to talk about the exchange of merchandise between France and Switzerland.

"I dismissed him brutally," declared M. Caillaux.

Continuing, M. Caillaux said: "I have never given one franc to the Bonnet Rouge since the war began. It is true that I subscribed 40,000 francs before the war, but this fund was exhausted at the beginning of hostilities. At the time I was engaged in defending my honor against a bitter press campaign. The Bonnet Rouge defended me, and therefore I helped it."

"I have defended my honor in the past, and will do so in the future, with all possible means at my command."

M. Caillaux's voice rose to a high pitch and he exhibited emotion as he made this declaration. A ripple of applause broke out. It was quickly suppressed.

"It is my contention," said he, "that a public man in time of war must consider every possibility of bringing about a favorable peace, no matter where it comes."

M. Caillaux's testimony seemed to be disturbing to the accused, who immediately began to attempt to shift the responsibility upon each other.

ABSENTEE DEPOTS ESTABLISHED AGAIN

Owing to the number of young men, which, however, is not considered large, of the ages of 20, 21 and 22 years, inclusive, who have failed to comply with the simple notification from the registrar to report for service, waiving all exemptions, the military authorities have deemed it necessary to re-establish temporarily the absentee detachments.

Already several have been opened again and officers placed in charge. Yesterday it was learned that Lieutenant D. Palmer will proceed to Perth, where he will take over the duties as O. C. of the absentee detachment, while Lieutenant J. W. Harmon will go to Woodstock in a similar capacity. Both officers have been carrying on for some months with No. 1 New Brunswick Depot Battalion.

Lieutenant-Colonel A. H. H. Powell, acting G. O. C. Military District No. 7, left yesterday at noon for Halifax on military business relative to the districts. He will be away for a few days. During his absence Major S. S. Wetmore, D. A. A. and G. M. C. is in charge at local headquarters.

It has been announced in district routine orders that in future all parties returning from overseas will be dealt with at the clearing depots according to new regulations. All men for military districts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7, will be cleared at disembarkation at Halifax or St. John. Telegrams will be sent to the secretaries of the Soldiers' Aid Commission as through the C. E. F., informing him who are returning for his particular district; telegrams will also be forwarded to the G. O. C. of the district
