LOCAL NEWS

DEATH OF CHILD Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dobbin will have the sympathy of many friends in the death of their infant son.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY The chaplain continued his series of addresses to the members of the Central Holy Name Society last evening at the monthly meeting.

TO SPEAK IN ANDOVER Mrs. E. A. Smith left this morning for Andover where this evening she will give an illustrated lecture on a trans-continental trip of Canada. She will return home tomorrow evening.

THERE WAS A FIGHT The mystery surrounding the wharf trouble on Monday evening has been cleared up by the police. It appears that a fight took place between two men. The identity of one is known to the police.

HOME AFTER MEETING Hon. J. G. Forbes returned home today from Woodstock where yesterday he presided at the annual meeting of the N. B. branch of the Canadian Bible Society. He was re-elected president for the coming year. Rev. H. B. Boyer, pastor of Fairville Baptist church, also returned today.

SURPRISE PRESENTATION Friends last evening called upon Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kincaid at their home in Main street and tendered them an enjoyable surprise. During the evening in behalf of those assembled Albert Cox presented to them a handsome electric ornamental table lamp. A pleasing programme of dancing, music, and games was carried out and refreshments were served.

WANT PROTECTION The matter of police protection or a lack of it is causing complaint by residents in the vicinity of Rockland road. Two instances of recent occurrence have strengthened the arguments for increased patrol. A lady on her way home was accosted and an attempt made to snatch her handbag. Another lady was molest- ed on her way to the home of a relative after her arrival on a train from out of town. Complaints have been heard also from other sections.

GOING TO WINNIPEG Friends of James P. Martin will be interested in knowing that he has been transferred from the Montreal office of the Holt-McIntyre Company to the office in Winnipeg. He arrived in the city this morning on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin, North End, and will remain here about a month before going west. He has been in Mon- treal for some time and was formerly in the employ of Magee, Limited, Char- lotte street. His friends will wish him well in his new position.

AGAIN ARRESTED

Dougal Campbell Once More Sent Out of Court

Dougal Campbell was arrested again last night charged with being drunk on the north side of King square. He was fined $50 or three months in jail only yesterday for vagrancy, but that was allowed to go on suspended sentence when he promised to leave the city on the next train. He was again ordered out of the court this morning as it was thought he was doing all he could to be sent to jail. He is not wanted there.

A Cranston avenue man was given in charge for assaulting his wife and was remanded. He will be examined as to his mental condition. William Harry was arrested in Brit- tain street last night, charged with being drunk. He pleaded not guilty and declared that if he was drunk last night he would cut his throat from ear to ear. The magistrate took this last statement as evidence that the man was not yet sober. Policeman Ross, who made the arrest, said that he took the man to the home of a relative where the prisoner had told him he lived but that they told him he was not wanted there. Harry is out on suspended sentence given him by Judge Forbes. He will be sent be- fore Judge Forbes again.

COLONEL REES HERE IN CONNECTION WITH METROPOLE MATTERS

Colonel Rees, social secretary of the Salvation Army for Canada, arrived in the city on the noon train and was in conference with Adjutant Cummings and other local officers of the army in connection with their plans for the restoration of the metropole. Adjutant Cummings told a Times re- porter this afternoon that so far no de- finite arrangements in this direction had been made, but that it had been prac- tically decided to rebuild as soon as a convenient site could be obtained. It was almost sure, he said, that the pre- sent site would not be used. There were other matters to be considered, such as the raising of funds, etc., before any definite announcement could be made. The suggestion that the city furnish a lot at a nominal cost has been consid- ered a good one by the officers of the army, providing it is in a practical loca- tion, and Colonel Rees and Adjutant Cummings will likely confer with the mayor this afternoon on this subject.

A REAL BOYS CLUB

At the Every Day Boys' Club last evening the members elected a court of their own, which will deal with in- fractions of the rules of the club. The boys are entering into the spirit of orga- nisation in a way that indicates success. Having made their own rules they will insist upon having them respected. The suggestion that the city furnish a lot at a nominal cost has been consid- ered a good one by the officers of the army, providing it is in a practical loca- tion, and Colonel Rees and Adjutant Cummings will likely confer with the mayor this afternoon on this subject.

Montreal fire insurance rates may go up unless there is prompt investigation and action in connection with the water supply.

BULK OF ESTATE IS LEFT TO DAUGHTERS

Will of Mrs. John R. Calhoun Disposes of $22,000—Other Matters in Probate

In the probate court today the will of Mrs. Sarah Longmaid Calhoun, widow of John R. Calhoun, mill owner, was probated. She provides for the placing of her lot in Fernhill in perpetual care. She gives to the trustees of Germain Street Baptist Chapel $400 to be invest- ed—the income to be paid by them to the treasurer of the Women's Mis- sionary Aid Society of that church; to the board of the ministers' annuity fund of the Baptist Convention of the Maritime Provinces $200 for the benefit of the fund; to her sisters Jane Barbour, Sophia Longmaid and Ada L. Holman $100. The rest of the estate to her daughters Ethelwyn Emily Pope and Grace Saint John Calhoun equally and appoints them executrices. They were accordingly sworn in as such. There is no real estate personally $22,000. J. Roy Campbell, K. K. is executor.

The will of Hamilton Cochrane, late of Black River, farmer, was proved. He gives all his estate to his executors and trustees with power to sell his farm at Black River, then to pay to George Kir- by, his deceased wife's brother $400; the balance to be divided into three equal parts—one to his sister Elizabeth France, wife of Thomas Mafr of Sim- onds; another to his sister Mary, wife of Henry Goss of Somerville, Miramichi and the remainder to his brother William, and he nominates his sister Elizabeth Frances Mafr William P. Alexander of St. John, merchant, and J. King Kelly, barrister-at-law, executors and trustees. They were accordingly sworn in as such. Real estate in Simonds, $500; personal estate $1,900. J. King Kelly, K. C. is pro- ceed.

In the matter of the estate of the late J. DeWolfe Spurr James S. Harding, broker, the administrator presented his accounts with a petition for passing them. A citation was issued returnable at 11 o'clock at 11 o'clock at 11 o'clock. Powell & Harrison are proctors. The court also took up the matter of the estate of Joseph Shannon, pecker. He died intestate leaving his wife, Mary Ann; two children by his first wife, James Shannon of Rhode Island, clerk, and Annie, wife of Gordon McCaskill of Lingwick, Quebec, farmer—and five grandchildren—children of a son of the deceased and of a daughter of the widow by her first husband, all of which claim- ed an infant's share with their grand- mother. Mrs. Shannon was sworn in as administratrix. There is no real estate personally $2,400. Anson A. Wilson, K. C. is proctor.

NEWS OF MONCTON

James R. Brown to Return—Canadian Club Speakers—Matter of Market Tolls

Moncton, Feb. 5.—The question of tax reform continues to occupy the minds of many Monctonians. Recently James R. Brown, of Toronto, delivered an ad- dress before the local Canadian Club on tax reform, devoting special attention to the single tax movement. He ad- dressed before the club before he left, and so many were anxious to hear him again that arrangements have been made for him to visit Moncton again on next Sunday. He will speak on Earthly Things.

The local Canadian Club has arranged for the following speakers: February 10, Rev. W. H. Smith, Ph. D., of Frederic- ton; February 17, Judge Russell of Hal- fax; February 24, Wallace Broad of St. Stephen, who has spent the last ten years in China; March 10, Prof. W. M. Tweedie of Mount Allison. It is expected that others will address the club soon, among them Dr. W. C. Keirstead, of the U. N. B.

The funeral of C. P. Harris, held on Wednesday afternoon, was attended by many business men and professional men, and others. Rev. Canon Sims, of St. George's church, was assisted by Rev. Canon Forsyth, of Chatham. The pall-bearers were Dr. W. L. Harris, George L. Harris, John Harris, Edward Harris, Hubert Sinclair and C. W. Pet- erson. The body was interred in Elmwood cemetery.

At the annual meeting of the West- morland County Orange Lodge in West- ville on Tuesday evening, Frank D. Gardner of Moncton was elected county master. Rev. George E. Whitehouse, of Berlin, N. Y., a former pastor of the First Moncton Baptist church, is supplying here in the absence of the First Baptist pastor, Rev. G. A. Lawson, who has gone south for the benefit of his health. One of the questions to be dealt with by Moncton's new city council is the proposed abolition of market tolls. The matter has been taken up by the new market committee, but no recommen- dation has yet been made. Representatives from the local trades and labor council and the board of health will be heard. Rev. Mr. Barzclough of Centenary church, St. John, will lecture on March 24 in the Central Methodist church here under the auspices of the Epworth League. On February 24 Rev. H. A. Goodwin of the Central Methodist church, Moncton, will address the Ep- worth League of the Central Methodist church on "The Great West and the Greater East."

THE STEAMERS

R. M. S. Scotian, of the Allan Line, is due to sail from Halifax for Liverpool on Saturday. Dominion Line steamer Orithia will sail tomorrow morning for Baltimore to discharge the balance of her cargo and load homeward. The Sicilian, of the Allan Line, bound from Glasgow to Portland, was aboard Cape Race last night at 9 o'clock. The White Star Liner Teutonic was aboard Sable Island at 11:45 o'clock last night and is due in the harbor tonight at 9 o'clock. She will dock either late tonight or early tomorrow morning. Allan Line Corvathian is due to sail from London for this port via Havre. R. M. S. Victorian of the Allan Line sailed from Liverpool for St. John yesterday. The Royal Edward, of the Royal Line, arrived at Avonmouth from St. John yesterday.
