Egg Shampoo Mixtures

THERE is no better shampoo for the hair than some egg mixture.
This being my opinion, I have chosen several recipes which I would ask you to look over, selecting the one which most appeals to you.
This is the way a well known hairdresser gives the ordinary egg shampoo. First, she fills the wash bowl with hot water into which she throws half a teaspoonful of borax. Then she cracks two eggs together over her patient's head and lets the yolk and whites run over the flowing locks.
After this, plunging her hands into the hot water and dashing it over the hair, she rubs and kneads the eggs into the hair and scalp until the head looks like nothing so much as a snow-ball. When this happy time arrives, she concludes it is time to begin rinsing operations, so she scoops on a bath sponge previously immersed in the hot water faucet and floods the soapy hair with warm water until not a particle of the grimy lather remains.
You can see it is no trick at all to shampoo the hair with eggs. One only needs a little knowing how.
The rosemary egg shampoo is very much liked. I will print the formula, as you may prefer to use it in preference to the one given above.
ROSEMARY AND EGG SHAMPOO.
One ounce of rosemary spirits.
One pint of hot rainwater.
Yolk of one egg.
These ingredients should be well beaten together and rubbed well into the scalp and over the hair. After the proverbial nine rinsing waters have been used and one's tresses are free from grime and frothing egg, all is the sun until every hair is dry as a bone.
A most excellent shampoo for the woman with oily hair is made thus: Shave one-half bar of white soap and boil in one pint of water until of the consistency of jelly. When mixture is cool, stir in one teaspoonful of good toilet water and

TO BE ENGAGED
Proceedings of Orange Grand Lodge — Grand Master Speaks of Progress

Chatham, N. B., March 19.—The annual message of the grand master read at the opening ceremonies of the Provincial Grand Lodge L. O. L. today was in part as follows:—
"The matter of extending the order was never lost sight of during the two years required of your grand master. It has been a growing thing, righting shores of phenomenal has been the growth of the order. It is a matter for special satisfaction that we are able to count the increase by thousands. This fact, added to the fact that in all Canada we have a force well nigh the half-million mark, makes the order a mighty power that must be reckoned with."
The grand master, in his address, strongly urged the appointment of a field agent at a stated salary to push the work of further organization. This was most enthusiastically received.
At Valley's session it was decided to set apart a substantial fund for the furtherance of the order. It was also agreed that an organizer should be obtained in conformity with the grand secretary's recommendation.
Among other business today was the voting of $150 towards the Orange Orphanage at Pictou (Ont.).
Considerable discussion took place on the advisability of establishing a provincial orphanage, but it was felt that such was not ripe for such a project here, though the opinion of the meeting showed that the feeling was strong, and that it would eventually materialize.
The committee of correspondence reported sixty-eight deaths during the year.

Daily Hints For the Cook

POTATOE RECIPES.
Potatoes Fried Whole—When nearly boiled enough, put small potatoes into a saucepan, with butter or beef drippings.
Shake them about to prevent burning until they are brown and crisp. Drain them from the fat. It will be an improvement if they are floured, dipped in beaten egg and rolled in fine bread crumbs and then fried.
Potatoes for Breakfast—Cut cold boiled potatoes in slices lengthwise, dip them in beaten egg and put on a buttered flat plate in the oven. As soon as they are brown and hot, serve.

WOODBURY'S FACIAL
SOAP
A famous skin specialist's own soap Learn what it will do for you John H. Woodbury devoted his entire life to a study of the skin and its needs. From his experience with thousands of cases of skin troubles, he developed the formula of the now famous Woodbury's Facial Soap.
In the 12-page wrapper around every cake of this soap the causes for all common skin troubles are given—conspicuous nose pores, sallow skin, blackheads, etc.—and the proper treatments to relieve them.
If there is any condition of your skin you want to improve, get a cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap and follow the directions given in this wrapper. In ten days or two weeks your skin will show a marked improvement—a promise of that lovelier complexion which the steady use of Woodbury's always brings.
Woodbury's Facial Soap costs 25c. per cake.
No one handles it at the price of other facial cakes.

TO SETTLE HERE.

A. S. F. Marshall of Gateways, B. C., and D. Johnston of the Kootenay Valley, arrived in St. John yesterday to complete preparations for taking up farms on the St. John River Valley. Mr. Marshall says that many farmers and fruit ranchers of British Columbia are planning to move to New Brunswick, the chief attraction being better fruit lands at much lower prices and easier access to larger markets.
Former New Brunswickers in the west are becoming especially interested.

A Paris Chemist Has Discovered How to Grow Hair

In Paris the ladies have entirely abandoned wearing caps, which is due entirely to the new discovery.
It has been proven that Henna leaves contain the ingredients that will positively grow hair. That they contain this long-looked-for article is proven every day.
The French are now placing on the market a preparation containing the extract from Henna leaves, which is having a pleasing sale.
The preparation is called SALVIA and is being sold with a guarantee to cure dandruff and to grow hair in abundance. Being daintily perfumed, SALVIA makes a most pleasant dressing and is sold by your druggist. A large, generous bottle can be purchased for 50 cents.
Sold by the Canadian Drug Co., wholesale distributors.

THE LORD MAYOR'S MOTTO

Sir Wm. Thelcar when Lord Mayor of London, said: "My motto for womanhood is, 'The better the cook, the happier the husband.'"
There is no earthly reason why wives should not, nowadays, perfect themselves in the gentle art of cooking. Instruction of the very best is open to them; the accumulated experience of centuries is theirs to command and culinary helps such as have never been available before, are brought within the reach of the narrowest purse.
Take, for instance, the delicious H. P.
Sauce, introduced only a short time ago from England. The different choice flavours of Oriental fruits and spices are perfectly blended in this new and delicious sauce. The young housewife, with a bottle of H. P. Sauce at her elbow, will make a certain success of the little stove, ragouts, and hashes, which are so much of a puzzle and trial to the inexperienced cook.

WOMEN SHOULD BE PROTECTED

Against So Many Surgical Operations. How Mrs. Bethune and Mrs. Moore Escaped.

Sikeston, Mo.—"For seven years I suffered everything. I was in bed for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak I could hardly walk. I cramp and had backache and headache, and was so nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone move in the room.
The doctors gave me medicine to ease me at those times, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it.
Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too. I can do my own housework, hoe my garden, and milk a cow. I can entertain company and enjoy them. I can visit when I choose, and walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the month. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl."—Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo.
Murrayville, Ill.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a very bad case of female trouble and it made me a well woman. My health was all broken down, the doctors said I must have an operation, and I was ready to go to the hospital, but I decided so that I began taking your Compound.
I got along so well that I gave up the doctors and was saved from the operation."—Mrs. CHARLES MOORE, E. E.
