Father McShane Honored
Three presentations were made on Monday to Rev. Dr. Gerald J. McShane, pastor of St. Patrick's, Montreal, the occasion being his patronal feast day. In the afternoon the members of St. Patrick's A. A., of which organization Rev. Dr. McShane is spiritual director, convened and offered him a testimonial of their appreciation. The pupils of St. Patrick's Academy also held a concert and musical in his honor. In the evening the united choirs of the parish made presentations. In the case of the church choir the offering consisted of a pair of gold mounted opera glasses, whilst that of the Men's Choir took the form of a portable reading lamp of hammered brass. In the course of a pleasant evening spent in St. Patrick's Hall, an impromptu concert and musicale was held. Father McShane has many St. John friends.

His HOUSE BURNED—Victoria Corner was destroyed by fire on last Friday. Most of the household goods were saved and a small insurance partly compensated the loss.

MORNING LOCALS
The competitive plans for the proposed alterations to the market building called for by the market committee were filed yesterday. As far as could be learned only two sets were sent in. One of these was from H. H. Mott and the other from G. W. Wilson.

Between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon an alarm from box 38 gave the department a run to the residence of A. A. Wilson, Carmarthen street. It turned out, however, that it was only a chimney fire and there was no damage done.

At a meeting of the buildings committee of the county council yesterday afternoon it was decided to appoint Armstrong Clifford junior of the court house in accordance with the request of the council made in January last. It was decided to make minor repairs to various buildings.

E. L. Phillips of the Royal and Queen Insurance Companies came to the city last night after having aided in the adjustment of the fire losses at the Depot House, in Sussex. He went to Sydney to adjust the loss in connection with the fire in the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Co. power house yesterday.

The annual reception of Peverley Lodge, No. 19 to their returning brethren was held on Tuesday evening at A. D. Smith, G. M. presided and gave an address as did M. D. Brown, John Salmon, E. N. Stockford and others. Mr. Brown was loudly applauded for his advocacy of the centennial movement. A badge of merit for long service was presented to J. J. R. Smith, past grand master. Those taking part in the programme were: Dr. A. D. Smith, H. B. Elliot, J. Cunningham and C. A. Hannah.

Alfred Carlson, S. M. of the Canadian A. S. C. No. 7, who represent that body at the coronation, having been chosen yesterday by Major A. E. MacIntyre, a young Halifax named Allen was caught badly last evening by Constable Gibbons as he was about to leave the city with a bill of $83 for which Kaplan & Shave were suing against him. He was about to take the train for Amherst when "spotted" by Gibbons although he had not seen him before. He paid.

Mrs. G. O. M. Phillips, of Scotland, is visiting her son, A. L. O. Phillips at his home here, last night delivered an address on the suffrage movement before the members of the St. John Suffrage Association in Mrs. J. F. Bullock's home. She was followed with most attention in her interesting remarks.

A special meeting of the Carpenters Union was held last night in their rooms in the Market building, when an interesting address was delivered by P. C. Sharkey on the demand for increase in wages by the members. At the business meeting of the union which followed more than 20 applications for membership were considered.
