Macademized roads, in all save the name, were known in the Roman dominions 300 years before the Christian era, and were not merely limited to the vicinity of the capital, but were laid down in every province that succumbed to the valor of the Republican arms.

The New Silver Dollar.

We give in the above two cuts a representation of the new silver dollar now being coined, as directed by the silver bill just passed.

The most extensive deposits of meerschaum in Asia Minor are about twenty-four miles southeast of the city of Eskischer, formerly Dorylea, the inhabitants of which, numbering about twelve thousand Armenians and Turks, are principally engaged in collecting or dealing in this mineral.

There was a great deal of theology in the idea of the little girl who wished she could be egged without obeying grandmother.

A mathematical paradox—one step is two.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!! Don't fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for all diseases incident to the period of teething in children.

Renovation, not Prostration. Did any enfeebled man being ever become strong under the operation of powerful cathartics or salivators? It is sometimes necessary to regulate the bowels, but that cannot be done by active purgation, which exhausts the vital forces and serves no good purpose whatever.

When Dr. R. V. Pierce was a candidate for State senator, his political opponents published a pretended analysis of his pills and medicines, hoping thereby to prejudice the people against him.

It is true economy to use cheap adulterated baking powder, which is not exposing the health, merely because it is cheap? Common sense and experience say no!

There are probably a hundred or more persons in this and neighboring towns, who daily suffer from the distressing effects of kidney disease, which has been known for twenty years as an absolutely pure, wholesome, and in every respect, reliable article, is within the reach of all those who practice true economy in this respect.

We notice that agricultural newspapers of the country are not exposing the worthlessness of the large packages of horse and cattle powders.

Prospectively, from purely physical causes, this great inland region must reach the position of one of the richest agricultural portions of the United States.

The following statistics of the rainfall clearly prove the accuracy of the foregoing statement.

Table with columns for Year, Fort Hays, Fort Dodge, Fort Scott. Rows for 1873, 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, and Total.

These are some of the facts in relation to the agricultural possibilities of this region, and these, coupled with the story of the past, are sufficiently corroborative of the inducements this portion of the Great Plains offers.
