

Moved by Rev. W. Johnston, seconded by Rev. Geo. Robinson, and
Resolved,—That the Conference has listened with delight to the eloquent words of our highly esteemed and honored brother, Dr. Douglas, and while we express our thanks to Almighty God for having continued to our dear brother's health and strength, enabling him to pursue to this day so successfully his beloved work, we assure him that his address will increase our enthusiasm in the cause of our common Methodism in the various departments in which we labor.

Moved by Rev. O. R. Lambly, M.A., seconded by Rev. M. E. Wilson, Ph.B., and

We further recommend that an orphanage be founded under the auspices of the Church where little children might be offered a home and training under the care of the Church.

Moved by Rev. J. S. Clarke, seconded by Rev. W. Burns, that the beautiful staff presented by Rev. R. Duke to the President of the Conference, manufactured out of the timber of the first Methodist Church erected in Upper Canada in the year 1792, be accepted by this Conference as a memento of our history, and handed down to the President of the Conference from year to year.

Moved by Rev. Wm. Johnston, seconded by Rev. D. N. McCamus, and
Resolved,—That the Committee on Conference Arrangements be instructed to appoint the Annual Meeting of the Theological Union for the Saturday afternoon of Conference week.

Moved by Rev. Wm. Burns, seconded by Rev. Wm. Johnston, and
Resolved,—That the Secretary of Conference be directed to order 2,500 copies of the Minutes of Conference, and that the same mode of distribution as last year be adopted.

Moved by Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., seconded by Rev. T. M. Campbell, and

Resolved,—That Rev. D. Scott Houck be appointed Reporter for the Christian Guardian, and that the Book Steward pay him $10 for his services.

Moved by Rev. T. Snowdon, seconded by Rev. T. W. Jolliffe, and

Moved by Rev. T. M. Campbell, seconded by George Acheson, and
Resolved,—That the thanks of this Conference be presented to the Rev. O. R. Lambly, M.A., the retiring President, for his faithful and efficient services of the past year.
