KENNEL CLUB SHOW NOW IN PROGRESS

Setters and Pointers Judged Yesterday—Some Surprises for Fanciers

On Thursday afternoon, J. Cole, the bench show judge, one of the leading authorities on dogs in America, began judging at the Kennel Club's show in the drill hall.

The St. Bernards and the Chesapeake Bays occupied very little of the judge's time, as there are few entered, but when it came to the English setters' turn it was different. As usual, there is a large number of these on show and many are very evenly matched. The Hickford-Withers kennels took a majority of the ribbons, but not as many as fanciers thought they would. Mailwyd Major, of course, took first prize in the open class and the red ribbon was awarded to one of the pups he sired, Arbutus Roy.

The competition among the bitches was even more marked. Miss Effie Collier's Winnie and George Smith's Arbutus Beauty and Prince gave them a pretty little animal as one could wish to see and which was sired by Prince, took first in her class.
A surprise was furnished the fanciers when the pointers came up for judgment. T. P. McConnell's Red Wing, a beautiful imported dog, was just beaten out by W. Gatt's King

TRAGEDY AVERTED ON BROAD STREET

Broncho Breaks Away With Gig and Occupants—Young Man's Plucky Action

An incident that might have developed a tragic aspect occurred Thursday afternoon on Broad street, between Yates and Johnson. A smartly rigged broncho, attached to a delivery gig containing three occupants, a boy and two girls, shed at some passing object on the street, and before the boy could gather up the reins, his share had broken into a gallop. Careering along the street at a terrific clip, the gig swaying ominously from side to side in the rear, a crushing disaster seemed imminent, when a young fellow of about the proportions who was in advance of the oncoming vehicle, stepped out and threw himself in an effort, and as the frightened animal passed, threw himself at its head.

For a second or two it seemed as if the young man would be crushed under the horses' feet, for he was dragged along a considerable distance. He had secured a firm hold, however, and once he had regained his balance, he speedily brought the runaway to a standstill.
In a moment the animal was perfectly under control and the occupants of the gig had an opportunity of returning thanks. Their scared faces gave the spectators some indication of the sensation they had just undergone.

The name of the young man who so pluckily averted what might have been a disaster is Van Raalte. He is in the employ of the Canadian Northern in the Pemberton block.

PHOENIX'S NEW POLICE CHIEF.

Nelson, March 30.—J. C. Kempton has been appointed chief of police for Phoenix. He has been instructed strictly to enforce the laws relating to police and licenses and to rid the city of gamblers and pugilists. The new chief has had experience on the provincial police force.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Madison, Wis., March 31.—By a vote of 16 to 4 the state senate passed today the bill giving women the right of suffrage in state elections.

STEWART CITY AN
EXPORT TERMINUS

Stewart as a prairie export town, by a three-hundred-and-fifty-mile cut-off, is the view-point of Robert Stewart, one of the founders of Stewart on Portland Canal, who, with J. W. Stewart, arrived in Victoria last night. He points out that the coast is 900 mile distant from the prairie on the C. P. R., that 750 miles intervene on the Grand Trunk line, but that with the proposed C. N.
R. line to be built from the head of Portland Canal through Bear, Naas and Peace valleys to reach the C. N. R. at Edmonton, the distance from prairie to ocean will be but 400 miles, and that the easier excess will mean cheaper transportation and "large grain shipments to the northern terminus. There
important shipping point.

Prospectors are busy in the Naas river, and J. W. Stewart says the Fitzgerald part, which has been a number of years, has returned for sunbaths and gone back to continue its prospect with an outfit for the summer.
Samples running to 200 ounces silver have been found on the White river, says Mr. Stewart, and these carry fair gold values. He also speaks of the opportunities for the rancher in the valleys to the north between the Naas and Stikine rivers. He expects that the
of locators and settlers will be there this summer.

The honor of possessing the first battalion of cadets in British Columbia belongs to the University school.
The school has increased its membership so rapidly that it now possesses the minimum of three companies which are necessary to the formation of a cadet battalion. The change of name was authorized in the Canadian militia orders of March 18, 1911.

The constitution of the unit is as follows: Instructor, R. V. Harvey, lieut. C. S. C. I.; officer commanding, Cadet Major S. P. McGuigan; adjutant, Cadet Captain E. A. Rand; quartermaster, Cadet C. H. Collison; company officers, Cadet Captain H. R. Wade (A Company); R.
B. Hobson (B Company); and R. W.
L. Crawford (C Company); subalterns, Cadet Lieut. C. Greary, W. J. A. Thorsen, L. Woodward, K.
Macdonald and R. Beech.

ALLEN'S APPEAL.

Ottawa, Ont., March 31.—The Supreme court this morning gave judgment ordering a new trial in the murder case of King vs. Allen. The appeal from the British Columbia court was taken on the ground that some of the evidence submitted to the jury was not legally admissible, and that it influenced the jury's decision. Justice Sir Louis Davies and Mr. Justice Idington dissented from the judgment.

three-hundred-and-fifty-mile cut-off, is
the prairie on the C. P. R., that 750
miles intervene on the Grand Trunk
line, but that with the proposed C. N.
R. line to be built from the head of
and Peace valleys to reach the C. N. R.
ments to the northern terminus. There
important shipping point.

gerald part, which has been a number of
outfit for the summer.
have been found on the White river,
gold values. He also speaks of the op-
this summer.
