CARING ADVANTAGE OF OPPORTUNITIES.

"Mr. Templeman's fitness for the portfolio he now seeks to fill must be throughout the entire continent, as w judged by the efforts he made to learn that even from far-off New York coure it. If he has not proved equal to his opportunities and responsibilities in the past, we have little guarantee that he will do better in the future." This is the judgment of the Colonist. It is a new thing for a public man in this country to be reproached because of lack of the spirit of selfishness. Politicians are not usually backward in claiming in full measure all they believe to be their due. In the ordinary relations of life the selfsacrificing man is commended for his virtues. "NOT IF IT COST TEN DOLLARS a bottle would I be without Polson's Nerviline," writes J. A. Ruth, a farmer living near Trenton, Ont. "Nerviline is the best household liniment I know. We use it for stomach troubles, indigestion, know of nothing better to take in hot water to break up a cold, or to rub on for rheumatism or neuralgia." Every farmer should keep a few bottles of Nerviline handy and have smaller doctor bills. Large bottles 25c at drug-
