"Superior to Circumstances" is an excellent 19th century story written for a purpose by Mrs. Emily Lucas Blackall of Philadelphia. It is built on the lines of Kingsley's assertion that any man or woman who will, can live the heroic life. With this strong purpose as its apology and with a firm Christian tone as its base, the novel is one that appeals to every lover of moral heroism.

Frank C. Swan, Apotheoary, Haverhill, Mass., says: "Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry sells better than any other cough remedy. I can recommend it. I have used it and sold it for 30 years."
