

pupils, and that istendency shall be to teach them self-control, obedience to principles, and a conscientious regard for right.

No young lady will be allowed to retain her connection with the School whose example tends to encourage indolence or insubordination, or whose influence is in other respects injurious.

PRINCIPLES.

Truthfulness in opposition to pretence in anything, patriotism, love of home, devotion to parents, simplicity, inartificiality, avoidance of heartlessness and display.

PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT.

The laws of hygiene are insisted upon in respect to dress and exercise.

Every student is required to bring a loose dress to be worn during the exercises in Gymnasium.

DRESS, &c.

Every young lady must be provided with umbrella and overshoes.

School-room dresses should be simple and inexpensive, with high necks and long sleeves.

Very little jewelry or spending money should be at her disposal.

Carelessness and the possibility of dishonesty in servants, &c., make it proper that all funds should be deposited with the officer appointed for that purpose.

SESSION HOURS.

For recitation and study, from 10 minutes to 9 to 12.15 A. M., and from 2.15 to 4 P. M. Evening study from 7 to 9.

It is understood to be necessary that Day Students should spend at least two hours in study at home. Parents may be assured that something is wrong unless this is done.

Punctuality in the attendance of Day Students is of the utmost consequence. Tardiness results not only in loss to themselves, but is injurious to classes, and tends to general disorder. Tardiness and unexcused absence will stand against Deportment on the Cards. All excuses must be signed by the name of Parent or Guardian.

VISITING AND RECEIVING VISITS.

STUDENTS' RECEPTION DAY.—Saturday afternoon.

All persons, except immediate relatives, wishing to visit Students, are expected to present a letter from parents or guardians, or to be otherwise suitably introduced.

Visits without this preliminary must be declined.

Students are allowed, at proper times, to visit such families as the parents or guardians may name to the Governor or Principal, but not to remain out over night, or over the Sabbath, except at the house of some near relative. The last Friday or Saturday of each month is the time appropriated for these visits. Friends who are visited must call for the young ladies and return with them.
