HAZEN'S WEAK POSITION REGARDING VALLEY ROAD THROUGHLY EXPOSED

Absurd Claims of Premier and His Colleagues That Federal Government is Imposing Impossible Conditions

Carleton Sentinel Shows Up Bluffs and Inconsistencies of Local Government in Its Reception of the Federal Offer to Lease and Operate Valley Line as Part of the Intercolonial—Some Important Things Which Hazen and Fleming Must Attend To.

(The Carleton Sentinel.) As was to be expected, immediately upon the news being made public that the Federal government had complied with Mr. Hazen's request and the request of the whole St. John, N. B., and Miramichi brought down legislation agreeing to operate the road as a part of the Intercolonial, paying back to the provinces and the company 40 per cent of the gross earnings, the Tory press of New Brunswick, led by the Standard and the Clearing, raised the howl that Mr. Pugsley and Mr. Carvell were attempting again to defeat the road.

A Few Words About the Hawker Remedies For Years the Standard Among Medicines

The originator of the famous Hawker Remedies had only one object in view when he prepared the formula of the various Remedies—and that object was to prepare remedies of the highest grade of efficiency, to make quick and effective cures.

DR. MANNING'S GERMAN REMEDY. HAWKER'S BALSAM OF TOLU. HAWKER'S LIVER PILLS. Cure All Stomach Ills. A purely vegetable preparation, sugar coated, easy and pleasant to take and above all effective in the cure of all Liver Trouble, Headache, Sour Stomach, Constipation, Biliousness, etc.

The above remedies are manufactured only by us, and contain the registered number 1295—Look for it, all others are imitations.

SHERIFF'S SALE

There will be sold at public auction on Saturday, the eighteenth day of March, at 12 o'clock noon at Chubb's Corner (so-called), in the City of Saint John in the Province of New Brunswick, all the estate, real and personal, of George S. Cushing, right title and interest of said estate, in and to all those certain lots pieces and parcels of land situate lying and being in the Parish of Lancaster in the County of Saint John in the said Province and described as follows:

Hazen's Legislation

Then if they will look at Mr. Hazen's legislation, being that of the Statute of 1910, they will find that the conditions was that before the province would guarantee bonds, the road must be equipped with rolling stock. We would refer our readers and the Tory newspapers to Sect. 10, 11, and 16.

Dare He Refuse?

It will then be necessary to change the conditions of Sect. 10, which provide specifications. It is true that in enacting this legislation he has followed very closely the lead of Mr. Pugsley's letter, but when Mr. Pugsley leaves her husband and one daughter, and the daughters are: Mrs. John Hughes, Mrs. Charles Thompson, of Silver Falls; Martha and Jennie, at home.

WEDDINGS

Chatham, N. B., Feb. 16.—(Special.)—The wedding of Harold Loggie, son of W. S. Loggie, M. P., and Miss Jessie Miller, daughter of James Miller, was quietly celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, last evening. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. M. McLeod, was a very quiet one, only the immediate relatives of the young couple being present.

AN ENJOYABLE EVENING

A merry sleighing party, consisting of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. Martin, John, left the city in two large sleighs last Thursday and drove out there. A pleasant evening was spent in games and dancing, and a supper was served. The party returned to the city at an early hour, voting the evening one of the most enjoyable they had ever spent.

Have You Read It? To the Editor of The Telegraph: Sir.—In your issue of Feb. 16 I notice a request for certain poem, Sighing for Happiness, two lines of which are quoted. For the benefit of "Query," I enclose the entire poem. The author was Charles Mackay, born in Scotland, 1812. It was published by Elton Foster in his Cyclopaedia of Poetry, 1876. I sometimes use it for funeral occasions.

SIGHING FOR HAPPINESS. Tell me, ye winged winds, Wherefore ye moan and sigh, That round my pathway roam, Do ye not know some spot Where mortals never more? Some lone and pleasant dell, Some valley in the West, Where free from toil and pain, The weary soul may rest? Behind a cloud the whisper low, And sigh for pity, as it answered—No.
