GOOD SHOOTING IN P.R.A. MATCHES

Winning Scores Not Quite So High as Last Year

Major McRobbie of St. John Makes More Possibles Princes of Wales, Sussex Mercantile, Cadet Corps Matches Disposed of Tuesday -- Some Difference of Opinion About New Ammunition.

Sussex, N. B., Aug. 12—The P. R. A., men had a great day on the local ranges, the conditions being all that could be desired, and in consequence some good shooting was done, although the winning secores were not quite so high as last year.

Stephens, St. John Gr. H. D. Lockhart, 3rd Regt, C. G. A. Frank Harris, Sackville, $1 Sgt. J. C. Bonnell 8th Hussacres were not quite so high as last year. The afternoon sessions was taken up with the shooting of the Prince of Wales' match, and the Cadet match, which was Prince of Wales match, and the Cadet match, which was shot in conjunction. Sergt. B. R. Clark, of the 67th Regiment, carried off the cup, medal and the first money prize in the Prince of Wales match with a score of 66. This is three points lower than the score made last year by the winner, Captain H. E. D. Golding, of the 74th Region of the 74th Regi added to his present record of possibles at 200, 500 and 800, another perfect score at 600, which has put him in the running for a high place in the extra series aggregate.

This evening a meeting of the competitors fas held in the bungalow on the range, and a number of matters relating to the meet were discussed and some suggestions made. It was recommended that a smaller disc be used in marking the shots on the target at 200 yards, as the present disc is so large that when it is placed on the bullseye it covers a great portion of it and makes it difficult sighting.

It would seem that the men have not ghting.

The trouble commenced some time ago, when a raft of the Miramichi Lumber Company of Chatham struck one of the piers and carried away some of the work. The Foundations Co., Ltd., sued the lumbermen for damages. The Miramichi Lumber Company employed expect of the case, found that the plans for the bridge had not, as is required for tidal waters, been submitted for approval of the dominion government. On this point the Miramichi Lumber Company claim they are not liable for damages. The development of the case resulted in the attempt to hold up the construction of the bridge, which is placed, the Chatham people claim, in a particularly bad place for rafts. Napper started work only yesterday morning in a lumber yard in the north end of the city. He came to the home of his brother-in-law after his day's work was over, apparently in a troubled frame of mind, but nobody in the house nad any suspicion that he intended to end his life.

The young woman over whose refusal The young woman over whose refusal to have anything to do with him Napper is said to have been despondent, is, according to the man's relatives, at the present time living with the dead man's sister, Mrs. Gesteppy at 8 Grand avenue. She formerly lived at Tory Hill, near Lindsay (Ont.), where Napper was working up to some time ago and it was there that he met hen.

Last night he went to his sister's home for supper and there met the young woman. She once and for all, according to the story told today, refused to have anything to do with him, telling him to remember his wife and two children in New Brunswick, and Napper left Mrs. Barieppy's house in a very despondent mood.
