

CANADIAN MILLERS NOT SO BAWLY OFF

Are Able to Compete With the World Sold Over $20,000,000 of Products Abroad Last Year

Free Trade Britain Took $11,000,000 of Them—United States Bought Practically None—Enormous Amounts of Foodstuffs, Fruits and Other Items of Living Imported From United States By Canadians

Ottawa, Feb. 8.—An abstract of the trade of Canada for the twelve months ended with November last, shows that Canadian millers were able to compete in foreign markets either against a duty, or in free-trade Britain, to the extent of an export trade valued at $20,138,938, an increase of approximately $1,000,000 over the preceding twelve months.

Of the total exports of flour the United Kingdom took $11,778,493. The value of the Canadian flour exports to the United States was $59,266.

The cheese export for the twelve months ended with November last totalled $19,188,300, a decrease of about $2,000,000.

The export of butter totalled only $285,180, of which the United States took nearly half.

It is interesting to note that settlers' effects to the value of $16,100,250 were brought into the country, while settlers' effects to the value of $2,922,700 went out. There was a decrease of about a half a million dollars worth in the amount coming and an increase of about half a million dollars worth in the amount going out.

As bearing on the Liberal policy of the removal of the duties on foodstuffs, it may be noted that during the twelve months the imports included breadstuffs to the value of $13,232,126, of which $7,947,988 came from the United States; vegetables to the value of $3,281,683, of which $2,489,495 came from the United States; and fruits to the value of $17,054,412, of which $12,844,405 came from the United States.

Exports of Canadian produce to Great Britain during the twelve months totalled $16,507,674, an increase of $44,386,103.

Exports of Canadian produce to the United States totalled $188,781,858, an increase of $40,298,182.

Imports from the United Kingdom totalled $141,425,651, an increase of $6,445,226.

Imports from the United States totalled $488,459,953, an increase of $23,488,568.

The total trade with the United Kingdom increased by nearly $4,000,000, while the total trade with the United States increased by a little over $64,000,000.

CONSERVATIVES AT WAR IN YORK

Local Government Organ Attacks Pinder and Other Revolvers

Machine Enraged at Opposition to Guthrie Makes Savage Assault on "King of the Neckwick," and Tells Why He Was Not Taken into the Cabinet.

Fredericton, Feb. 7.—J. K. Pinder, M. P., is the target for a sharp attack by the Gleaner in an editorial today. There is open warfare now. The South-ampton Railway business is thrown in Mr. Pinder's face by the Gleaner, representing the McLeod wing and purporting to speak for Premier Fleming.

The question asked by everybody now is this:

"Suppose Pinder tells all he knows about the Fleming government and certain members of it—what then? He has turned and rended him—what if he turns and rends them in turn?"

The article in today's Gleaner is as follows:

What the Gleaner said.

"Mr. J. M. Scott, who has been presented under the name of an Independent Liberal-Conservative candidate, opposed to Mr. P. A. Guthrie, the government party standard bearer in the approaching bye-election in York, is not the selection of any party of defined principles, or of any organized body whose interests are discussed and whose decisions are arrived at in open convention. Mr. Scott is a very respectable man, but whose ambitions were never in the direction of prominence in the political life, has been unduly influenced and misled by a number of grouchers who have personal ends to serve in offering opposition to the government candidate. Just what service he could do in the present legislature, even if elected, has not been shown, nor attempted seriously to be shown. Yet if he were elected his election would have to be treated as a condemnation by the county and the city of all that the government have been trying for the advancement of agriculture in this province, for the development of our natural resources, and our railroad building policy in which we have found the solution of our hitherto transportation problems, and which Frederickton in this province for the last few years has benefited greatly. The election of Mr. Scott was prepared by others, not by him. The section setting out that the meeting was irregular, is merely a pretence. The meeting spirits in this present hour of the little bunch of grouchers were at the government convention, answered the call, took part in the proceedings, and made absolutely no objection to all that had been done in calling the convention. It was not until the vote was taken, and their candidate lost by a vote of more than 10 to 1, that they began to look about for excuses.

"The chief thing in Mr. Scott's card is the grouch. Mr. Jas. K. Pinder, not Mr. Scott, is sore because Mr. Pinder was not taken into the government on his reconstruction following the resignation of Hon. H. F. McLeod. According to Mr. Pinder, there was deception, and he gets behind him Mr. Howard Rogers, respectively fame, and a few other personal ends to serve, and they together with Messrs Mitchell and some others, say: 'We, the independent men of York, will meet you on the broad ground of the county's interests.' This is noble, while the county of York is in the hands of the government. Mr. Pinder placed himself in opposition to a good government simply because Mr. Jas. K. Pinder has been disappointed. And it is not Mr. Pinder himself responsible for the fact that he was not present, but the fact that he was not present, how could Mr. Pinder, himself be consistently taken into the executive of the province while the reconstruction of the railway business remains in its present condition with the atmosphere uncleaned and still tainted by a disrepute of the jury in the trial?

"It was also given out some weeks ago by an opposition paper, purporting what are generally known as the Grouchers, that certain of Mr. Pinder's other dealings with the government were in a chaotic state, and that since then he has been known to Mr. Pinder, promised that the trial would clean up the railway business and set at rest all suspicions. He also promised faithfully to clean up the other affairs, and we are free to admit that it is because of this inability that he was not taken into the cabinet. Premier Fleming would no doubt have been pleased to have taken him in. We have reason to believe that he wanted to do so, but it will be admitted he could not consistently do it with Mr. Pinder's affairs in so far as they relate to the government dealings, in the condition they were in. Mr. Pinder has not been denied a seat in the government. The vacancy is there yet, it is simply not filled yet because of Mr. Pinder's own fault. He has been found unfit to be consistently elevated into a position of honor and responsibility.

"The opposition is therefore wholly an effort to serve personal ends, and such will naturally meet with the almost unanimous condemnation of the people of this county, who have an adequate sense of the fitness of things and of the responsibility involved."

Nova Scotia Crec Rescued at Sea.

Genoa, Feb. 7.—The Italian steamer Dora Ballea arrived here today from New Orleans and Norfolk and landed the crew of the British schooner Gardie W. Wambach, which was abandoned at sea, a widower and leaves one son and four daughters. The Gardie W. Wambach left Halifax (N. S.) Dec. 27 for Inraport and Demerara.

Unionists Will Make Last Stand

Hope to Force Government to the Country on Irish Home Rule

Strathcona Left Many Bequest to Faithful Men Around Him—Many Canadian Loans on London Market.

London, Feb. 9.—The parliamentary session which opens tomorrow will be an epoch-making one. A strong, determined government is faced by an opposition who are equally determined and who are resolved that the government's chief legislative proposal shall not go into operation, even if passed.

It is believed that the Unionists will seize the very earliest opportunity of raising the Ulster issue, thus precipitating the beginning of a historic struggle.

There is much talk of forcing a general election, May being mentioned as the time, but the opposition are somewhat divided in opinion as to the wisdom of this, owing to a doubt as to the possibility of success attending the effort.

Mr. Asquith is credited with the intention of remaining in power till the spring of next year, as two other measures, Welsh Disestablishment and the abolition of plural voting, are still to be completed before the Liberal programme will be accomplished. What with home rule, Welsh disestablishment, and the naval estimates, this session cannot fail to produce unprecedented scenes.

Strathcona Remembered His Staff.

London, Feb. 9.—Although great respect is being shown in connection with the late Lord Strathcona's private bequests, it is evident that he has remembered all who served him faithfully for a long term of years, and also that he did not forget any promises he had made. Lord Strathcona had undertaken to put a young man through his university course. He paid for him during his life, and has left sufficient for him to complete his education.

W. L. Griffiths, official secretary to the high commissioner, receives a substantial legacy in recognition of his twelve years close association with the late peer, which was prolonged and arduous and often officious duties performed at all sorts of hours. This bequest is a personal one, not only from a personal standpoint, but as a mark of appreciation of services rendered in an official capacity.

Lord Strathcona has also remembered in his will various members of his town and country households.

Big Canadian Loans on London Market.

London, Feb. 9.—Preliminary particulars are being published in the advertising columns of the newspapers today of the issue by the Canada Steamships Lines, Ltd., of £1,000,000 five per cent. bonds, and of the issue of the same stock. The Canadian Securities Corporation, Ltd., is handling the issue which will probably be made by the middle of this week.

The merger's operations are expected to create considerable interest in the London market.

Lasard Bros. & Company announce that the offer of £1,200,000 four and a half per cent. Alberta Canadian Northern and Western Railway guaranteed first mortgage debenture stock has been fully subscribed. The list closed on Saturday.

The Guardian Realty Company of Canada is offering $800,000 cumulative seven per cent. preferred shares.

Big Plant Making War Material.

London, Feb. 9.—American Ambassador Page paid a visit to the Elswick works on Newcastle-on-Tyne on Saturday, and was shown over the ordnance, ship building, and other departments by Sir Andrew Noble and other officials, being entertained at luncheon afterwards by the lord mayor, who had invited a special party to the Mansion House to meet the ambassador.

Speaking at the luncheon, Mr. Page said they had nothing in the new world equal to the Elswick works, they had works equal to it in the United States, and he was engaged in electrical manufactures or making locomotives or machinery that had to do with the arts of peace and did not make great instruments of destruction.

Hampton, Feb. 8.—Stewart F. W. Foose opened his court on today for the nomination of candidates to fill the vacancy in the provincial legislature caused by the appointment of the Hon. J. A. Murray to the office of minister of agriculture. Mr. Murray's petition was filed by G. H. Adair, acting as agent, at 10 o'clock no other petition had been filed, and the sheriff declared Mr. Murray duly elected.

St. Andrews, N. B., Feb. 8.—Nomination proceedings in Charlotte county passed very quietly. Only two nominations were filed, those of Hon. George Clarke and R. Watson Crommel. The sheriff closed his court at 9 o'clock, having declared the gentlemen nominated duly elected.

FIENDISH ACT OF MEXICAN BANDIT

Forced 50 Men Into Burning Tunnel

Nine American Railway Employes Among the Victims

Took Terrible Revenge On Villa for Executing Twenty-two of His Band—Outlaw Has Been a Terror to the Country for a Long Time.

Juarez, Mexico, Feb. 7.—The nine Americans and forty or fifty Mexicans, whose fate has been a mystery since the destruction of the Cumbre tunnel last Wednesday, were suffocated. This information was received here this evening at the headquarters of the Mexican Northwestern railroad. The tragedy is laid at the door of Maximo Castillo, the bandit leader.

Headed men here and in El Paso are furious at Castillo's act. On Tuesday twenty-two of his men were captured and executed by the rebels and the next day, apparently in revenge, he captured the freight train, ran it into the south end of the tunnel about 300 feet and set fire to it.

The passenger train entered the death trap from the north, travelling at its usual rate of about fifteen miles an hour. When the engineer discovered the trap it was too late.

Castillo's failure to send back warnings of his deed is regarded as the most cruel and murderous act of his career of outlawry, and there is a disposition here to criticize General Francisco Villa for not having crushed him long ago.

The captured Americans, all employes of the railroad are:

M. J. Martin, of Buffalo (N. Y.), superintendent of the Chihuahua terminals at Juarez.

Lee Williams, assistant manager of commissary.

H. F. Marders, express agent.

D. J. McCutcheon, engineer.

E. E. Webster, conductor.

Edward Morris, rosiner.

Thomas Kelly, conductor.

James Burgess.

S. S. HALL DIED

Friday Evening

Prominent Business Man Passed Away at Age of 88

Spent Day at His Office Little More Than Two Weeks Ago—Actively Interested in Work of the Church, Board of Trade and Other Organizations—Widely Known in Business Circles in Eastern Canada.

Stephen S. Hall, head of the firm of Hall & Fairweather, Limited, St. John, one of the best known business men in eastern Canada, passed away last night in his eighty-eighth year, after an illness of two weeks' duration. On Tuesday, Jan. 20, Mr. Hall spent the whole day working in his office. On Friday, Jan. 23, however, he was taken ill at his home, and since that day gradually sank till his death exactly two weeks later at 10 o'clock last night.

He was always bright and active, devoting much energy to his business as well as to social duties, for he was for years warden of St. Paul's church, Rothery, and at the time of his death was president of the Relief and Aid Society. He had been president of the board of trade and was also a past president of the New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters.

Born in 1826.

Stephen S. Hall was born in Annapolis (N. S.) on July 27, 1826. He was the son of James and Jane (Thorne) Hall. His ancestors on both sides were Loyalists who removed to the maritime provinces immediately after the close of the American revolution. His father came from Massachusetts and the Thorne from New York.

Stephen S. Hall came to St. John in 1843 and, commencing his business life as a dry goods clerk with Charles Ketchum, was later with R. P. McGivern in the same line of trade in Dock street. He subsequently worked on South wharf for his uncle, W. W. Thorne, whom he left to enter the employ of Mr. Troop and when Mr. Troop went into the shipping business Mr. Hall engaged in the wholesale grocery trade. He conducted business alone from 1851 to 1854, when he formed a partnership with Charles H. Fairweather. For many years they were extensive flour dealers. They continued in business until the death of Mr. Fairweather in June, 1889, since which time the firm has been known under its present title of Hall & Fairweather, Limited. The concern is still transacting a large wholesale business, and is under the management of William C. Goswami.

In 1851 Mr. Hall married Harvill Shaw, a daughter of the late Israel Fellows, and a sister of James I. Fellows, formerly of St. John. Her father was born in Annapolis county (N. S.), and her ancestors were Loyalists. She became the mother of seven children, namely: Florence, now deceased, who married E. R. Fairweather; Mabel, who married Dr. C. D. Murdoch, of the United States army at Fort Huachuca, Arizona; Manetta, accidentally burned to death in childhood; Henry E., who is now in Vancouver; Herbert B., of Lloyminster (Sask.); Ethelwyn, who is residing at home; and Stephen T., the eldest son, who was in business with his father and Mr. Fairweather. His widow, Mrs. T. Hall, has since been living with her father-in-law.

Politically, Mr. Hall was a Conservative. He was a member of the Church of England and deeply interested in religious affairs having been for many years prominently identified with St. John's (Stone) church. Mr. Hall was agent for the Phoenix Fire Assurance Company of London.

The funeral took place from St. John's (Stone) church on Monday at 2:30 o'clock.

SIR HUGH GRAHAM NOT TELLING ABOUT NEWSPAPER DEAL

Tells Quebec Graft Committee That He Refused to Publish Charges in His Paper, But Declines to Tell Why.

Quebec, Feb. 6.—In the inquiry into the charges of alleged graft, Sir Hugh Graham was a witness today. At the outset, he made the following statement:

"I am at a total loss to know why I am summoned before this committee upon this inquiry. Until January 18 this year, I never heard of Bill 158. I have no personal acquaintance with the gentlemen to whom the offences are charged, have no knowledge of the proceedings and had not heard of them until January 18, in the evening, when a gentleman telephoned to me and asked if he might come to my house with Edward Boock. He said over the phone that he had something of a startling nature to disclose. I asked if I might have my counsel, A. J. Brown, K. C., present.

"After a moment's delay, he said 'Yes.' Mr. Brown was in my library when these gentlemen arrived. A summary was read of the charges, which I said I had never heard of before. They were offered to me for use in the journals in which I had or was supposed to have interest. On the advice of my counsel, I declined to have anything to do with them.

As to Newspapers.

"Sir Hugh then stopped and waited for Mr. Belley's questions.

"You are the owner of the Montreal Star, are you not?" was the first question.

"Sir Hugh replied: 'I am the chief shareholder, and I am the president of the company.'

"Mr. Belley said: 'In fact you control everything in the newspaper.'

"Sir Hugh: 'I am the president and I control a majority of the shares.'

"Mr. Belley: 'Did you have an interest in the Herald?'

"Sir Hugh: 'I came here determined to answer any question that was relevant and my own disposition would be to answer any question relevant or irrelevant, but I have been advised by those who know more than myself that if I were to answer an irrelevant question, it might result in a thousand of such questions and if I should refuse to answer one such question, my refusal would be misconstrued. Therefore I have been advised not to answer irrelevant questions.'

"Mr. Belley asked since Mr. Boock yesterday had refused to answer a question as to the owner of the Herald, to whom he offered the revelations, the point might be considered as relevant.

"Mr. Belley: 'Did you have an interest in the Herald?'

"Sir Hugh: 'I had absolutely no knowledge of the revelation until January 18.'

"Mr. Belley started by protesting that Mr. Davidson was trying to close the witness' mouth.

"Mr. Davidson contended that the ownership of the Herald could be of no interest to the committee. There were inquiries in the provincial legislature, the client was entirely foreign to the business of the committee. An attempt was being made to pry into the private affairs of Sir Hugh, in order to secure information that would be utilized for purposes it was not necessary to enquire into at that time.

"Mr. Belley said an answer to his question was necessary as he wanted to know why the Herald refused to publish the revelations. He argued that perhaps if there were conspiracy, as contended in the affidavit, the chairman interested before the matter was offered to The Mail for publication. If the committee stopped them it would lose an important point as to the reasons why papers had refused to publish the disclosures.

Mr. MacNab interposed.

"Mr. MacNab then jumped up and said: 'I am very much surprised to see the advocate who represents the witness get upon his feet and suggest that there are ulterior motives.'

"Mr. Davidson: 'I object to my friend referring to me in this way. I represent the witness, and I have no right to make any reference to my witness.'

"Mr. MacNab: 'I am making a statement of fact. There has been an instruction upon my good faith in connection with this matter. I ask the clerk to read the oath upon which Sir Hugh was sworn.'

When the clerk read it, Mr. MacNab continued: 'The oath itself specifically states that there is a conspiracy. By not saying so, in the exact words, the reference is that this conspiracy is connected with possibly those who are concerned to bring out the truth. I think

TO BUILD ADDITION TO SANITARIUM

Mr. Brodie Calls for Tenders for Another Building at River Glade—To Begin Work Soon.

Tenders are invited by F. Neil Brodie, architect, for the construction of an additional building at the Jordan Hospital Sanitarium, River Glade, for the accommodation of free patients, the cost of which will be borne entirely by Mrs. Brodie.

The building will be two stories in height, forty feet wide and 100 feet long. A two-story verandah, ten feet wide, portions of which will be enclosed with glass to form sun rooms, will run along the entire front and part of the rear of the building.

This new addition to the sanitarium will be placed about 50 yards from the administration building. The main entrance, which is to be at the end, will give access to a corridor, twelve feet wide, off which will open the doctor's laboratory, equipped with glass-topped table, cases, porcelain sink, etc.; emergency room, nurses' room, with bath; coat room, linen room and nurses' station. The verandah will be sixteen feet wide, off one side of which will be a recreation room, diet kitchen, equipped with steam table, sinks, cases, refrigerator, dumb waiter, dish sterilizer and utensil room, with sink, ventilating cases, etc.

The bath, toilet and locker room which will be near the entrance of the ward will be supplied with three hospital toilets, four wash basins, two dental lavatories, two shower baths and sixteen dressing lockers. At one side of the ward will be placed an improved blanket warmer.

The second floor will be practically a duplicate of the ground floor.

The building will be heated throughout by steam piped from a power house about 800 feet distant, where is also generated the electricity required for lighting, etc.

The plumbing appliances will be of the latest and best for hospital use.

The walls and ceilings will be finished in white enamel. The doors, casings, base, etc., are to be of cypress and Douglas fir in nature.

Fire protection will be afforded by equipping each floor with a two and a half inch stand pipe, awning hose brackets and fifty feet of hose, the stand pipe being connected with the water system of the institution which is supplied from a 20,000 gallon tank on a sixty foot steel tower.

The independent Conservatives are actively carrying on their campaign against P. A. Guthrie in favor of James M. Scott for the vacancy in the provincial legislature. Reports from the county indicate there is strong feeling in favor of Scott.

CUTTING OF PRICES PATENT

Brand New Trust Nation of Drug Stores

Washington, Feb. 9.—Smugglers and dealers who are great corporations want to prevent their being so they cannot meet prices on titles.

Before the senate interstate committee a delegation spoke clause which provides that it shall should "prevent discrimination between purchasers on account of difference quality or quantity of the sold, or that makes only difference in the cost of lion."

The advent of a brand was announced by a delegate National Association of druggists.

C. H. Nixon told the committee that cutting price medicines is the club used to drive small individual businesses.

"We believe a monopoly is being established with the object of forcing retail drug trade into the hands of a few United States."

The druggists proposed to interstate trade commission to enforce publication of wholesale and retail on all patented, copyright or
